BEAVER COLLEGE
JENKINTOWN
PENNSYLVANIA

Walls fall in on themselves, creating light for the place within.

A coming, yet not a going.

With the advent of new horizons comes the desire for scope.

As insight into a purpose becomes more tangible,

*the individual begins to grow within a framework.
Ideas come forth from the disintegration of past patterns and unite into a philosophy of action-- Working towards a strengthening and an enlightening of the whole.*

A week of green visions.

5 and much elbow-bending,

of home-grown entertainment to spice the

Big-Little Sister Picnic, leads to the frenzy of registration and the frustration of book-buying.

Initial day of classes behind, opening convocation points the way towards broader horizons.

Religion-in-Life Week and a new vitality. Honors

Night and the recognition of the scholastic few.

... airs of male freshmen about to be shattered ...

*Theater Playshop brings to the stage
a fantasy of imagination
the strength of talent.*

Blithe Spirit

Excitement mounts in the unification of classes towards a goal. Muscles place flags, but voices raise to greater heights. Song Contest

"We're on our way up to the top."

comes,

Team work is vital, on field and off, for success.

A splash and mermaids dash or dance across a pool . . .

The living art of theater-

Forum presents the modern world.

Insights into international community and national affairs . . .

In the diversity of faith and custom remains the unity of brotherhood.

Life a riot of colored balls, the child

Hidden in our souls stirs and lives a while.

The essentials of faith made firm, expressed through music . . . We gather joyously to celebrate, the very air infused with scent of pine.

Skill and sportsmanship

combine to form the game.

Pats and pans blend into an evening of student-faculty comraderie.

*March comes alive
with thespian competition*

passing into Polynesian splendor.

A variety of committees maintain active student participation in school functions.

Each an integral part in a way of living . . .

Prom plans and parties swirl into an unforgettable weekend.

Beaver speaks, both on campus and off, of life today and tomorrow.

The mechanics of student representation are regulated and kept in order.

Codes developed and accepted by students are maintained by them.

A contemporary outlook on the campus today and tomorrow.

College in its fullest concepts is recognized and received into the lives of a few - a drive unique, developed . . .

*There is only one direction for us—
moving forward to the future.*

It is not without fear
That we go forward.
But hope, the torch
Of grander vision,
Illuminates the great venture.
It is not without fear
That we go forward.
But over the stark stone cliffs
The sunlight breaks
and rushes down the precipice
To flow, a golden road,
across the sea
Meeting and mingling with the mist.
At the promise, the lure of a horizon.

To the Class of 1962:

As we bid "bon voyage" to you, so we say farewell to the Jenkintown campus and complete the move to Grey Towers. For this reason, the Class of '62 will always have a special place in the continuing life of Beaver College.

May this advancement for your alma mater symbolize the ongoing progress of each of you. New opportunities await both of us. May we move always forward in our intellectual and spiritual endeavors. For after all, the true measure of the success of Beaver College will be recorded in the lives of her graduates.

Every good wish to each of you,

Edward D. Gates

Life, translated into aspects of death,
Becomes more precious for that which is,
And in the time between here and there,
There is a vision of the wise.

To know that which has been before
Imparts half the beauty of life unto the soul,
And knowing that never again will such be Gives wisdom to the many and memories to the few.

You will agree that this book fulfills its intention, to be different. Yet it was not conceived with such as its primary aim.

In keeping with the physical transition which we are experiencing, it is our hope to bring a new perspective to this publication—a contemporary look to an old face. For assistance toward this end, we wish to express to
