Committee Seeks President

The Board of Trustees of Beaver College has appointed a Presidential Search Committee, and the task of finding a president for Beaver has begun.

The Committee members, confirmed by Mr. John V. Calhoun, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Trustees, are Dr. William D. Biggs, Dr. Myra K. Jacobson, Dr. Finbarr W. O'Connor, and Dr. Ronald E. Rowe, faculty members; Dr. Bette E. Landman and Mr. T. Edwards Townsley, administrative members; Ms. Susan S. Armiger and Miss Nancy B. Crosson, alumni members; Mr. Keith Goldman and Mrs. Audrey Reynolds, students members; and Dr. Ellington M. Beavers, (chairman), Dr. E. Jane Carlin, Mr. Wilbur E. Hobbs, and Mr. David S.

Markson, trustee members. Mr. John V. Calhoun, Jr. will serve as an ex-officio member.

There have been three meetings of the Committee. Advertisements have been placed in The Chronicle of Higher Education and The Wall St. Journal. Letters asking for nominations have been sent to educational and related organizations across the country. The initial response has been good, and the Committee plans to begin reviewing applications shortly. Information on the candidates is, of course, confidential, but beyond these limits the College family will be kept informed of the Committee's progress.

The Committee would greatly appreciate all members of the College family bringing the announcement to the attention of highly-qualified persons who may have an interest in applying for this position. Any information received will be handled in complete confidence. As of now, the Committee has received 300 applicants for the position.

The Committee is well aware of the extreme importance of this appointment and intends to seek out an outstanding candidate. We wish to assure you that we are aware of our deep responsibility as your representatives. It is hoped that the new President will take up office by September 1, 1983.

Alumni Contact Aids Chinman

By Linda Chinman

There is a new service here on campus that most of us don't know about. It is the Beaver College Alumni Career Contact Service, which is a computer list of alumni who are willing to act as contacts for Career Services. I will tell you what it achieved for me.

For the last year, I have been trying to get an internship in the management of real estate. I had made many attempts to contact people in the field, but didn't get any exciting responses. Then, Mr. Lower (Director of Career Services) told me about the new computer list, and I went to check it out. As I was leafing through the pages, I found many sections that listed alumni who work in fields of interest to me, such as, banking and real estate. Then, I selected those working near my home. I wrote them a letter that introduced myself as a Beaver student and explained how I got their names. Also, I included my career objectives and my interest in an internship for summer employment, asking for any contacts in the field and thanking them for their time and efforts. I also enclosed a copy of my resume.

To my surprise, in three days, I received a phone call from an alumna telling me that she had spoken to some friends who would like to hear from me. She told me I would be receiving a letter in the mail with names of people to contact during vacation.

When I got home from vacation, the letter was sitting there waiting for me. I called the businessmen that the alumna had spoken with and they were very nice and helpful. During my conversation with one of these men, we discussed an internship and arranged an interview.

At the interview, he explained what I would be doing and learning. Also, we discussed what my career chances with that firm would be for next year. He looked over my resume and realized I had previous experience; he changed the internship to an apprenticeship.

Being so thrilled, I called my alumna back to let her know what the final result had been and to thank her for everything. She was so happy to know that everything had worked out, and that she was able to help me. She then made arrangements to have lunch with me when I start working this summer.

Knowing what the computer list has done for me, I wanted to share my good fortune and let you know about the service that is available to us all. We are being given an opportunity to make contacts in all areas of our interests. I think that if these alumni are willing to take the time and effort to help us, we might as well make the best use of them.

The computer list, that I have been referring to, is located in the Career Services Office (Mon.-Fri. 9:00-4:30). Editor's Note:

Linda Chinman is a Junior, Business and Economics major. She will be working with Alfred Kohn Realty in New York, this summer. Judith Stern assisted in getting her the apprenticeship.

The Phonathon Rings On

By David Wilson

The 1983 Annual fund has just completed its third week, and thanks to a high turnout of student volunteers, is well on the way towards being a smashing success. The phonathon, the annual fund raising event organized by the Alumni office, has already reached a pledge total of $28,540 after the first nine days of calling.

Much of the Phonathons success can be attributed to the enthusiasm and commitment of the student volunteers. "It's incredible how hard the kids are working. I can't praise them enough," said Sandy Branam, Director of the Alumni Office. The highest one night total raised so far was $5200 on March 14, with student volunteers averaging almost $3000 a night. The high student callers are: March 1, Debby Travis, March 2, Debbie Kinsler, March 6, Ruth Epstein, March 7, Debbie Schwartz, March 8, Debbie Kinsler, March 13, Angela Rodriguez, March 14, Debbie Kinsler, March 15, Debbie Travis. The single high performance by a student was $1,080 by Debbie Kinsler on March 14.

In the hall race for the Pizza party, Heinz 3rd North leads with 17 participants, Heinz 2nd North follows with 14 participants, and Kistler 2nd South is third with 10 participants. The Phonathon will continue March 20, 21 and 22 so organize your hall today! The hall with the highest number of student participants will win a free pizza party for their hall.

Student volunteers are still needed. If you are interested, stop by the Alumni Office or call Kathy Mackin, ext. 211.

Phi Alpha Theta Induction

By Adrienne Provenzano

Students entering the Classroom Building during the week of February 28 probably noticed an unusual emblem displayed in the lobby. The insignia depicted was that of Phi Alpha Theta, an international history honor society. Five new members were recently inducted into Beaver's Iota-Theta chapter of the organization.

A brief initiation ceremony was held on February 28 in the CE lounge and was led by Dr. Matthews, Chairman of the History Department. Merle Balis, Ann Grabiell, Adrienne Provenzano, Audrey Reynolds, and Nick Spruance were welcomed into the society.

Reynolds, an English major, was "very enthusiastic" about her induction, which she viewed as "great" and "very valuable." And Nick Spruance perceived his initiation as an "honor"; he was pleased that the History Department is being active.

The purposes of Phi Alpha Theta are to promote the study of history, to bring students and teachers together both intellectually and socially, and to recognize distinguished achievement in historical research.

Charlotte Schneider, current president of the society, views her role as being "to raise the level of interest in the chapter, as it has not been active on campus for some time, and to provide an atmosphere for discussion."

Other officers this semester are Richard Dengel, Vice-president; Avie Guttman, Secretary; and Michael Reese, Treasurer.

Plans for the semester include regular monthly meetings at which some students will present papers, and several members will discuss their experiences abroad. There will also be a session focusing on job opportunities for history majors.

To join the society, an individual must be several basic requirements - at least a 3.1 average in a minimum of three history courses and no less than a 3.0 average in at least two-thirds of their other courses. However, it is important to note that it is not necessary to be a history major in order to be accepted into Phi Alpha Theta. According to President Schneider, students can be nominated by another person or nominate themselves. Further information can be obtained from Mr. Abernathy, Dr. Belcher, or Dr. Matthews. Charlotte Schneider can be contacted in care of box no. 545.

Eligible students should seriously consider applying for membership, as it is an honor to be accepted into a prestigious organization such as Phi Alpha Theta. In addition, members can participate in biennial conventions and regional meetings, and they are also eligible for prizes for scholarly works and for graduate scholarships. The society also maintains a placement bureau.

A Weekend to Remember

Travel Catalog Published

The Council on International Educational Exchange (CIEE), the largest student travel organization in the United States, announces the publication of the 1983 Student Travel Catalog. Now in its tenth edition, the 64-page Catalog is one of the most comprehensive, FREE budget travel guides available. It is an invaluable source of information on the basics of traveling, studying and working abroad.

The Catalog contains details on worldwide discounts and benefits open to holders of the International Student I.D. Card - the internationally-recognized proof of student status, and an absolute must for any student traveler. New this year for '83 I.D. Card holders is the 78-page I.D. Discounts Guide, which outlines the major discounts in nearly 50 countries.

The Council's Work Abroad program, the only one of its kind available to U.S. students, provides an opportunity to work abroad on a temporary basis. By cutting through red tape, CIEE has helped tens of thousands of students to obtain work in Great Britain, Ireland, France and New Zealand. Participants find that salaries more than cover the cost of room and board and many save enough to finance their post-work travels too.

International work camp summer programs, open to both students and non-students, place volunteers in community service projects throughout Western Europe, Scandinavia, and Eastern Europe. Participants are drawn from every corner of the world and free room and board help to keep participation costs minimal.

The Catalog also provides information on study abroad programs, up-to-the-minute information on international railpasses, low-cost tours, car plans, budget accommodations, trip insurance, and budget travel guides.

The all-new Regional Guides supplement the '83 Catalog with detailed information on airfares and tours specific to the region covered: Europe; Asia/Australia; Africa/South America. The Guides list special student and youth fares, available in the U.S. only through the Council or its appointed agents, for air travel around the world at prices well below regular fares.

The Catalog and supplemental Regional Guides come complete with applications and order forms for all the programs and services listed. Although some services are available to students only, most are open to all.

The 1983 Student Travel Catalog and Regional Guides may be obtained from CIEE, Dept. STC '83, 205 East 42nd Street, New York, NY 10017, (212) 661-1414. Enclose $1.00 for postage and handling.

RHC

Newsline

By Bea Rincon

During the last meeting of the Residence Hall Council, which was held on March 13th, the members discussed the ALA housing forums, which took place in the various dorms. Since the forums turned up with good turnouts, the new housing proposal for ALA's is going through.

Starting next semester, ALA's will be distributed within the different halls. Thomas Hall will be available for Beaver students.

The RHC also discussed the Gameroom contract. It was decided that the contract would not be renewed after this semester. Instead, we will be looking for a company that can offer a contract that provides more convenient terms on the capacity and profitability of the gameroom.
