

BEAVER NEWS

Vol. VI, No. 21

BEAVER COLLEGE, JENKINTOWN, PA.

Friday, June 7, 1940

Baccalaureate Service To Be Held Sunday

Reverend Mutch Will Preach To Senior Class

Bryn Mawr Pastor To Speak At Service On Sunday, June 9

By popular request of the senior class, the Reverend Andrew Mutch, pastor emeritus of the Bryn Mawr Presbyterian church, will speak at the Baccalaureate services to be held on Sunday morning, June 9, at 10:30. His topic is "Filling Our Niche."

Dr. Allan Sutherland, president of the Board of Trustees, will preside at the services. Mr. T. Carroll O'Brien will sing The Lord's Prayer by Malotte, and the entire graduating class will sing the class hymn.

Miss Ruth Bampton, associate professor of music, will play the prelude and the processional. The graduates will march into the chapel to Busser's March de Fete.

Following the singing of the Doxology, Dr. C. Waldo Cherry will give the invocation. The Scripture will be read by Mr. Archie D. Swift.

Congregation To Sing

The congregation will sing Faith of Our Fathers after being led in prayer by Dr. Frank D. Scott, college pastor.

Festival March by Best will be played by Miss Bampton for the recessional.

Dr. Mutch was born in Scotland and graduated from the Divinity School of the University of Edinburgh. He received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from Lafayette college. He is a member of the St. Andrew's society of Philadelphia, and is president of the board of Ministerial Pensions in the Presbyterian church.

Both Dr. Cherry and Mr. Swift are members of the board of Trustees of Beaver College.

The ushers at Baccalaureate will be Emily Ambrose '41, Helen Bierlin '41, Charlotte Bozarth '41, Lois Esau '41, Louise Fillman '43, Dorothy Gilbert '42, Avis Goodby '42, Mildred Howell '41, Doris McLean '41, Jane MacFarland '43, Dorothy Moore '41, Evelyn Rafferty '41, Janet Stringfield '43, and Jean Worrall '42.

Senior Class To Be Received As College Alumnae

The class of 1940 will be formally received as alumnae of Beaver college tomorrow afternoon at a meeting of the Beaver Alumnae association. The meeting will follow a luncheon to be held in the Beaver hall dining room at one o'clock.

Dr. Allan B. Sutherland, president of the Board of Trustees, will welcome the alumnae on behalf of the Trustees who are entertaining the alumnae for the day.

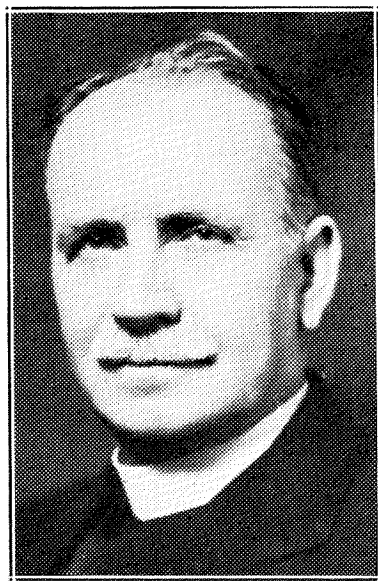

This year's graduating class will wear caps and gowns to the Alumnae meeting and will attend as a body being escorted by marshals. The Alumnae pledge will be repeated by the class members. They will also take part in the entertainment of the afternoon by singing their class songs.

The meeting will be presided over by Mrs. Eleanor McKinnon Emory, who has been president of the Alumnae association this year.

Mrs. Ruth M. H. Zurbuchen, executive secretary of the association, is in charge of the luncheon. Guests of honor who will be present at the luncheon are: Mrs. Edward Ried, mother of Irene (Pete) Reid of Lumberton, New Jersey, who has

ALUMNAE DAY

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 4)

Dr. Andrew Mutch . . .

Class To Hold Lantern Night

Dance For Fathers Will Follow Lantern Chain Procession

Love's Old Sweet Song, Girl of My Dreams, The Old Refrain, and Let Me Call You Sweetheart will be among the "old favorites" sung at Lantern Chain, in addition to the usual Song Contest songs of the seniors. This annual event will take place on Tuesday evening, June 11, at 8:30 o'clock on the Grey Towers green. This year will be the first time that songs other than traditional class songs have been used.

The seniors will form for the processional at Grey Towers and will proceed to the green carrying lighted lanterns. Following line formations, the class will make its way to the platform which will have a large paper lantern as its background.

Edna Cheyney will lead the songs which will include Freshman Pep song, Sophomore Class song, Sophomore Alma Mater, Junior Class song, Junior Pep song, Junior Alma Mater, Senior Hymn, Senior Pep song, Senior Alma Mater, Senior Class song, Alma Mater. Elizabeth St. Clair will be accompanist.

During the recessional to Murphy gymnasium, the seniors will sing the refrain of Follow the Gleam. The class will again form at the court at Murphy hall and will sing the Senior class song.

Lantern Night will be held in Murphy gymnasium immediately after the singing. This part of the evening is essentially in honor of the Fathers, and all seniors are asked to bring their fathers as dates. Following a promenade of fathers and daughters, the fathers will receive tiny lanterns as favors.

Eleanor Jackson and Elizabeth St. Clair are co-chairmen of Lantern Chain, and Ruth Corthell is chairman of Lantern Night.

Four Gala Years At Beaver Are Reviewed As Seniors Present Riotous Class Night

Here . . . we . . . are! Senior class—the class of 1940!

Yes, here they are as freshmen, green as the proverbial grass, marching in to present a riotous Senior class night—Four Years at Beaver or Live Alone and Like It. The seniors called this a review (or revue, if you prefer) of their gala days at Beaver, and if any sort of inference can be drawn from the performance, they really had some "gala days!"

For instance, there were the days of cheek-to-cheek dancing, when all decorum rested in a little six-inch rule. Certainly in all fairness to the committee, receptions are

Formal Senior Ball To Be Held At Grey Towers

Two O'clock Permission Is Granted To Seniors Attending Prom Tonight

The annual senior ball will take place tonight in the Grey Towers lobby, from nine until one. The orchestra of Len Learst will play on the first landing directly in front of the stairs. The receiving line is to form at nine-fifteen, and students are granted a two o'clock permission.

General chairman for the dance is Anne Parker. Her committee includes Virginia King, who arranged for the orchestra; Dorothy Sutton, in charge of decorations; Virginia Woodcock, of favors; Dorothy Patten, of patrons; Kathryn Pohlman, of corsages; Doris Anderson, of food; and Jessie Severe, of entertainment.

Patrons To Be Present

Patrons for the senior ball are Dr. and Mrs. Morgan Thomas, Dr. and Mrs. James E. Mooney, Dean Ruth Higgins, Dean Ruth Zurbuchen, Mrs. Roberta Paulhamus, Miss Lisollette Rath, Mrs. Helen G. Campbell, Dr. and Mrs. Paul Cutright, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seifert, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lawrence Curry, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank Scott.

As part of the entertainment, Marie Houstoun and Jessie Severe will both sing popular numbers, and a "prize dance" will be held.

The seniors attending the dance will be given, as favors, brown alligator cases with a gold Beaver seal. Attire for the dance is summer formal.

YWCA Plans Tea For Seniors, Parents Sunday Afternoon

The Young Women's Christian Association of Beaver college will entertain the seniors and their parents at a tea, which will be held from 3 to 4:30 o'clock in the Beaver Hall drawing room on Sunday, June 9.

Virginia Weaver, president of the Y. W. C. A. for the year 1941, will be in charge of the affair. She will receive with her mother, Mrs. Harry L. Weaver; Mrs. Helen Campbell; Dean Ruth L. Higgins; Dr. and Mrs. James E. Mooney; Mrs. Roberta T. Paulhamus; Miss Lisollette Rath; Dr. and Mrs. Frank Scott; and Miss Elsie B. Stryker. Next year's officers of the Y. W. C. A., Mary Berlin, '42, secretary; Betty Calverley, '41, vice president; Avis Goodby, '43, treasurer; and Madge Kimble, president of the student government association for the year 1940-1941, will also receive the guests. Over three hundred persons including members of the faculty and trustees have been invited.

A short musicale will be given

Y.W.C.A. TEA

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

Dr. R. Kistler To Give Commencement Address

Dr. Raymon M. Kistler . . .

Class Day Will Be Monday

Senior Gift Will Be Given; Silver Trowel To Be Presented

The senior class will assemble on Monday morning, June 10, in Taylor Chapel, to participate in the annual Class day activities. The last class meeting will be called to order by Edna Mae Cheyney, president of the class.

The program will begin with the processional, which will be immediately followed by the singing of the class hymn by the entire class. Virginia Woodcock, secretary, will then make the final senior roll call, and each senior will stand as her name is called. Marjorie Lowry, chairman of Class Day, will deliver an address of welcome to the visitors at the meeting.

The rest of the program will include the reading of the class history by Dorothy Patten, vice-president; the dedication of the senior robe by Edna Mae Cheyney; and the presentation of the class gift also by Edna Mae Cheyney, chairman of the gift committee. The formal program in the auditorium will conclude with the recessional.

A highlight of the day will be the presentation of the Silver Trowel immediately after the seniors leave the chapel. The present holder of the trowel is June Houpt. The name of the new recipient, the member of the junior class who has the highest academic rating for three years of college work, will not be known until the presentation is made, when, according to tradition, she will plant the ivy.

Following the trowel presentation, the program will be concluded by the singing of the Alma Mater.

Marjorie Lowry, chairman of the Class Day Committee, is being assisted by Irene Corsner, Rachel Craig, Kathryn McCutcheon, and Mae Reynolds.

Degrees Will Be Given To 130 Students

Scholastic Honors To Be Announced At Exercises On Wednesday Morning

The eighty-seventh annual commencement of Beaver college will be held Wednesday, June 12, at 10:30 a. m. on the Grey Towers campus. Dr. Raymon M. Kistler, president-elect, will give the commencement address to the 130 graduating students and to those attending the graduation. Dr. Kistler will speak on "The Glory of Living".

At this time Scholastic honors will be announced. The students graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, and cum laude will be announced.

The Malin Memorial award and the C. Mace Thomas Memorial award will be granted for excellence in chemistry, as will the Alliance Francaise medal for excellence in French. The Language Essay Award in Memory of Marion V. Frank will be presented. The graduate scholarship has already been awarded to Patricia Slotter. The Silver Trowel, which is given to the junior with the highest scholastic average, will be presented on Class Day.

38 To Receive B. A. Degree

Of the 130 students to be graduated, 38 will receive the degree of Bachelor of Arts, 12 of this number being in the teaching field. Twenty-three commercial students will receive the degree of Bachelor of Science, of which nine are in the teaching field and fourteen in business administration. The degree of Bachelor of Science will also be granted to twenty-one home economics students, thirteen in the teaching field, four in nutrition, and four in the general course. The remaining degrees of Bachelor of Science will be given to seven students in the Health and Physical education department, 21 in the Early Childhood education department, eleven in Elementary education, to seven in Fine Arts, and to two in Music.

Those students who were graduated in February are Mary Louise Purdy, Vera Smith, Edith West, Janet Wykoff, Ruth Livingston, and Charlotte Harder. There are eight girls who will finish in August.

The marshals for the commencement exercises are: Madge Kimble, Helen Dearden, Betty Ann Searle, and Betty Ann Kiehl. The ushers are Charlotte Kleine, chairman, Emily Ambrose, Helen Bierlin, Charlotte Bozarth, Louise Fillman, Dorothy Gilbert, Avis Goodby, Mildred Howell, Doris McLean, Jane

COMMENCEMENT

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

Senior Luncheon To Be Held At Country Club

Informality is to be the keynote of the senior luncheon this year according to Edna Cranmer, chairman of the senior luncheon committee. It will be held at the Huntingdon Valley Country club in Abington on Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock.

Decorations are to include a centerpiece of flowers in class colors, blue and yellow, for each table, and place cards bearing replicas of the seniors' academic caps.

Dorothea Dorland, president of SGA; Edna Cheyney, president of the senior class; and Ethel Moore, chairman of senior week, will speak informally to the girls. Other program arrangements are being kept secret.

BEAVER NEWS

Published weekly by members of the student body of Beaver College, Jenkintown, Pennsylvania

Subscription rate, $2.00; Mailed subscription, $2.25

Board of Editors

Marjorie Lowry '40 - Helen Mand '40, Editors-in-Chief

Ruth J. Hill '40, Managing Editor

Mary Alice Lippincott '41, Feature Editor

Business Staff

Irene Corsner '40, Business Manager

Winifred Boye '42, Assistant Business Manager

Marian Garrison '40, Advertising Manager

Carolyn Ryder '41, Circulation Manager

Departmental Editors

Faculty Editor

Elsie Babcock '40

Class and Club Editor

Lois Shoolman '41

Sports Editor

Dorothy Patten '40

Alumnae Editor

Mary Ann West '40

Music Editor

Elinor Sack '41

Exchange Editor

Alyce Goldberg '40

Faculty Adviser

Dr. Belle Matheson

1939

Member

1940

Associated Collegiate Press

Represented for National Advertising by National Advertising Service, Inc.

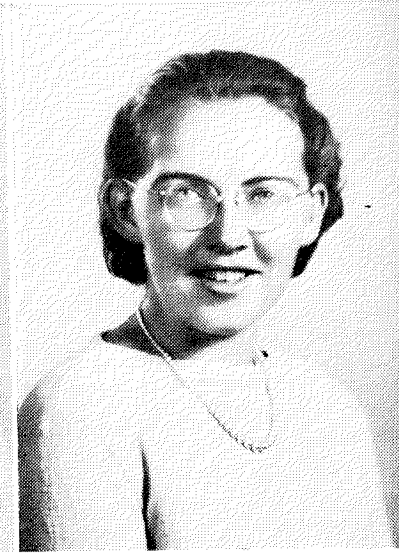

Dorothea Dorland . . .

S. G. A. president . . . dependable . . . dignified . . . poised . . . altruistic . . . diplomatic . . . sincere . . . everyone's friend . . .

Edna Cheyney . . .

Enthusiastic . . . friendly . . . always willing . . . always eager . . . alive . . . magnetic leader . . . easy to know . . .

Jane Carlin . . .

Original . . . organizer . . . systematic . . . versatile . . . open-minded . . . resourceful . . . amiable . . . definite . . .

A Tribute . . .

As a final tribute to the senior class it is a tradition of the Beaver News to dedicate the last issue of the paper to them. Special recognition is made of those girls who have been chosen by the members of the senior class as outstanding among them. The girls who are pictured on these pages were selected by the entire class to be included in the mirror section of the Log.

Thank you, and Goodbye . . .

To the Senior Week committee we wish to extend our thanks for planning the grand week of activities which lies ahead of us. The most fitting conclusion to our four years of hard work, fun, and fellowship is this Senior week planned by Ethel Moore and her committee.

Of all the memories we shall cherish forever—May Day, Song Contest, Junior-Senior Breakfast, Christmas dinners, final exams, Hallowe'en parties, Easter egg hunts, and all the rest—the most vivid in our minds will always be our last few days together—dancing at Senior Ball, singing in the Lantern Chain procession, going to the Class luncheon, and finally receiving our diplomas at commencement.

Thank you - - - and goodbye - - - 'til reunion day!

Just Thoughts . . .

I can remember, when I was just a little shaver, looking at pictures of boys and girls in Holland and France. I remember seeing little round-faced girls with long blonde pig-tails and dressed in full skirts and wooden shoes. They were always picking tulips in a garden or ice-skating on a canal, and they seemed to be happy and gay in whatever they were doing. I used to envy them, and think how lucky they were to be able to wear such fascinating clothes, and to do such interesting things.

I can also remember that, as I grew older, I envied the boys in England who went to fashionable preparatory schools and wore elegant stovepipe hats and fancy Eton jackets. They never seemed to worry about examinations or routine work, but were always out on the field playing rugby or rowing on the Thames. Our school life always seemed so dull and stagnant compared with theirs.

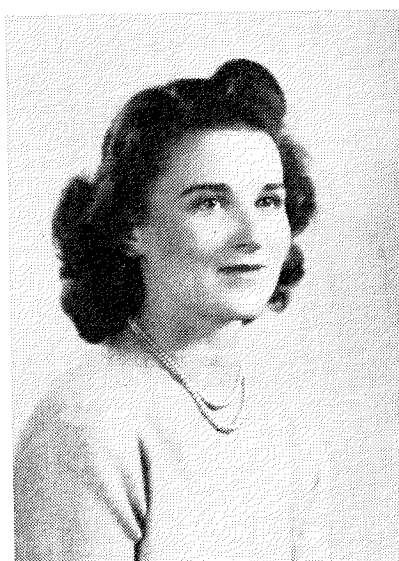

Then as I reached the romantic age of adolescence, I dreamed about springtime in Paris and open-top buses. I always pictured some dashing debonair Frenchman sending me violets and nonsensical notes, and I could see myself entering all the shops on the avenue and being measured for beautiful gowns, which were designed just for me. Then I would come back to reality and there I'd be, in my old sweater and skirt.

But times have changed. There are still plump little children in Holland, but there isn't any glow in their faces. There are still boys going to preparatory school in England, but now they are preparing for war. There is still springtime in Paris, but the shops are now boarded up and the vogue is the military shirt.

And so the grass is no longer greener on the other side of the fence. In fact, there is no grass; it's all straw. I'm glad I'm here, in my own room, where I can read or write without worrying about bombs. I'm glad I'm here where I can go to school and be educated in the finer things of life without having to learn how to drill or how to march.

I cherish this security now which for a long time I never even appreciated. I cherish it now because it is being threatened, perhaps not seriously, but nevertheless threatened. I cherish it now because it may not be mine for long and while I have it, I want to hoard it.

Edna Purvis

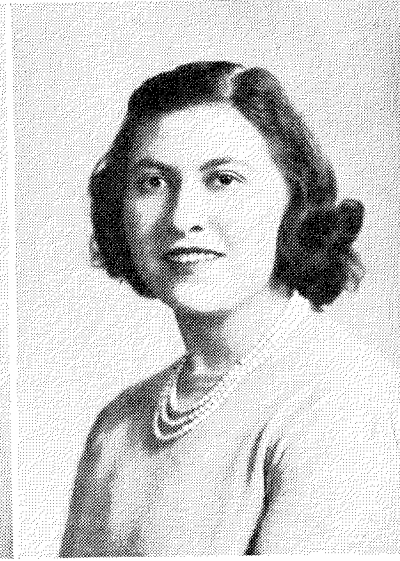

Elizabeth Williams . . .

Forceful . . . intuitive . . . attractive . . . frank . . . aristocratic . . . fiery . . . progressive . . . brilliant . . . smooth . . .

Jessie Severe . . .

Gracious . . . sociable . . . easy-going . . . talented . . . a dreamer . . . conversationalist . . . companionable . . .

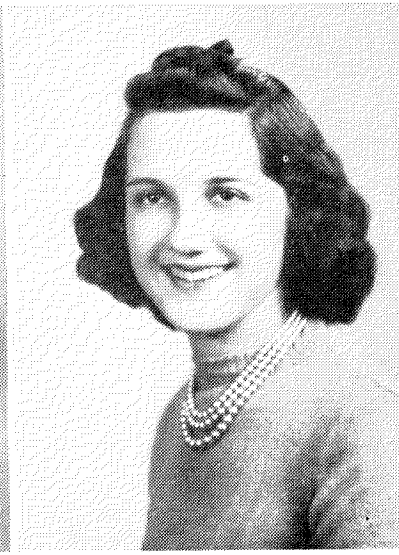

Rhoda Umansky . . .

Aggressive . . . impulsive . . . debater . . . creative . . . ingenious . . . confident . . . loquacious . . . business-like . . .

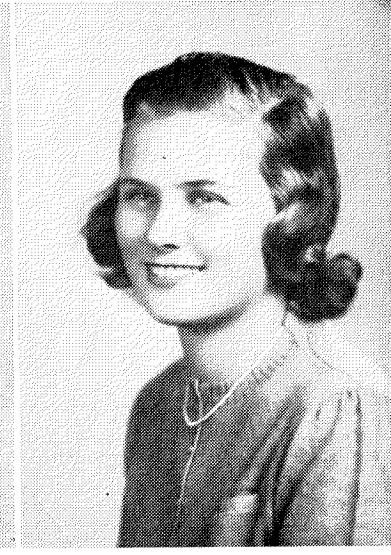

Anne Parker . . .

Cute . . . eager . . . willing . . . able . . . naive . . . sparkling . . . real . . . bonny . . . good manager . . .

Ida Gillman . . .

A swell girl . . . neat . . . amenable . . . zealous . . . congenial . . . glowing . . . interesting and interested . . .

Patricia Slotter . . .

Scholarly . . . candid . . . unaffected . . . genuine . . . sturdy . . . willing . . . cheerful . . . possessing stamina . . .

Remember . . .

Sissie West as Mrs. Zurbuchen in Class Night—Irene Snyder as Mrs. Paulhamus—Anita Jaeger worrying about getting enough tickets for graduation on account of her extra large family—Jessie Severe's friends from Brooklyn who upset the campus for a day—Meg Grant's writing and asking Mr. Wayte if she could have the day off to go to her mother's wedding—Alma Bleicher and her extra smooth clothes—Gertie Shonk's laugh and her man from South Africa—Hilda Bregman singing St. James Infirmary Blues—Rhoda Umansky in Student Government meetings—Harriet McCartney and her skits in chapel—when Elsie Babcock got married and everybody threw rice at her as she walked down the hall—when Jane Carlin gave Dr. Silsbee the check for the Foundation fund—Lorraine Alkon riding around in her car—Ruth Adair and her black nail polish—Helen Mand going home with the measles the very first day of school in freshman year—Doris Anderson and those wonderful lamb chops at junior-senior breakfast—Dorothy Boyd and her flash light camera—Lu Padmore and her unending enthusiasm—Debbie Bryer and the Becler plays—Ann Castle always rushing to A. A. meetings—Edna Cheyney leading song contest—Irene Corsner getting letters from North Carolina—Nina de Angeli reading the script in May Day—Gladys Dominguez and her snoods—Dorothea Dorland presiding over Student Government meetings—Dorothy Fairlamb going to West Point—Marian Garrison on April 5 with Harvard on her mind—Ida Gillman working on the senior budget—Dorothy Safir getting daily letters from Florida—Betty St. Clair and her "Study In Brown"—Maria Ruz and her special projects in Spanish—Lukie Perlstein as financial chairman for Prom—Pat Slotter with her candid camera and her golf bag—Doris Stewart with flowers in her hair—Dot Sutton at the head of receiving lines at formal dances—Nancy Wagner making announcements in chapel—Mary Wieland teaching the dances for May Day—Betty Williams as May Queen—Ginnie King learning to knit a blue sweater—Esther Lay all excited about her wedding—Florence Lester and quiet hour—Kitty McCutcheon dancing with Paul—Vera Mereschak and junior breakfasts on Sunday morning—Rudy Graybill painting hockey balls—Ruth Hill and her programs and her new "Chevie"—Dot Patten collecting caps and gowns—Elinor Payne pleading for the girls to return their May Day costumes—Mae Reynolds and Ginnie McGinnes waiting for Senior Ball with Ozzie and Wise—Hortense Singer and her freshman dink from Penn State—Phyllis Gerner going to Pittsburgh—Minetta Gladeck laughing—Alyce Goldberg catching her train—Doris Grolock when her face lights up—Helen Gumbs shooting a bulls eye—Helen Hagedorn writing letters for patrons for the Log—Vera Halperin and the navy—Grace Hampson playing Taps in chapel—Mucky

Faculty Club Entertained By "Ensemble" Of Toy Instruments

Faculty members declare that the entertainment at the last Faculty Club Dinner, held at the Golden Glow inn, Old York and Creek Roads, was the most amusing and unusual they have had for some time. The program was offered by members of the music faculty.

The Coffee Cantata by Bach opened the program, with Gloria Marcus taking the part of the daughter and Mr. Thomas Barlow, instructor in music, taking the part of "Papa". The story of the Cantata is that "Papa" becomes very angry and rails at and argues with his unruly daughter—her chief offense is drinking too much coffee.

The next part of the program by Mr. Josef Martin, instructor in music, consisted of a number of very lovely piano selections. When Mr. Martin had finished playing, Mr. Barlow and Mr. Curry walked solemnly up to him and presented him with a large tray of fruit in an advanced stage of putrefaction. Mr. Barlow says it was their intention to throw it, but that Mr. Martin's nice new clothes prevented this.

The third section of the program consisted of an Old Fashioned Chamber Music Group, including as musicians, Mr. Martin, Mr. Barlow, and Mr. Curry. Mr. Martin played a child's piano some twelve inches square; Mr. Barlow and Mr. Curry each played toy fifes purchased at the five-and-ten. The "Ensemble" played five numbers: a Fugue on Three Blind Mice; Sewanee River Overture; The Irish Washerwoman Serenade; the aria Old Black Joe; and as a grand finale, a Good Old Fashioned Jam Session!

It was decided that the awarding of the loan scholarship which was made possible through the funds from the Faculty Frolic should be left to the Faculty Scholarship committee.

Barbara Houstoun . . .

Managerial . . . peppy . . . good sport . . . energetic . . . ardent . . . invigorating . . . good natured . . .

Dorothy Patten . . .

All-around girl . . . humorous . . . conscientious . . . fun to be with . . . democratic . . . athletic . . . amiable . . .

Nancy Wagner . . .

Natural . . . agreeable . . . gingerly . . . agreeable . . . givgervating . . . lovable . . . wholesome . . . straightforward . . . entertaining . . .

Nina de Angeli . . .

Dramatic . . . assured . . . idealistic . . . deep . . . mature . . .
amusing . . . arty . . . frank . . .
unrestrained . . .

Virginia McGinnes . . .

Affable . . . poised . . . understanding . . . possessing common sense . . . sympathetic . . . gracious friendly . . .

Helen Mand . . .

Congenial . . . engaging . . .
agreeable . . . tactful . . . punctual nimble . . . adaptable . . .
complaisant . . .

Marjorie Lowry . . .

Vivacious . . . winning . . . sincere . . . sympathetic . . . enthusiastic . . . feminine . . . unaffected consistent . . .

Ruthane Capers . . .

Conservative . . . nonchalant . . .
dreamy . . . competent . . . honorable . . . reserved . . . versatile . . .
upright . . .

Ann Castle . . .

Reserved . . . diligent . . . athletic conscientious . . . efficient . . .
dependable . . . good friend . . .
appreciative . . .

Dorothy Fairlamb . . .

Competent . . . resourceful . . .
endearing . . . trustworthy . . . wis-ful . . . suave . . . thorough . . .
calm . . . leisurely . . .

Lucille Padmore . . .

Irrepressible . . . effervescent . . .
nimble . . . capable . . . active . . .
piquant . . . accurate . . . eager . . .
quick . . .

Edna Cranmer . . .

Intelligent . . . quick-witted . . .
sophisticated . . . stylish . . . chic curlyhaired . . . perfectly groomed . . .

Dorothy Sutton . . .

Artistic . . . earnest . . . informal amiable . . . nautical . . . chairman of dances . . . natural . . .
positive . . .

Hauptman going to Bucknell—June Houtt always on the Dean's Honor List—Boo-Boo Houstoun giving out A. A. awards—Marie Houstoun leading the cheers—Jill Jackson as guest speaker in class night—Eddie Cranmer and the Senior Faculty breakfast—Peggy Nicholls and the daisy dance in May Day—Ruth Corthell and Hermie at Prom—Kitty Williams and the cuts for the Log—Rachel Craig and Lenoir Winans getting seasick going to Bermuda—Charlotte Havens playing the piano—Ruthane Capers as Honor Council president—Sophie Bernstein planning the mock convention—Bettie Bleakley and Andy—Norma Bonomi sitting in the fountain—Mary Bragg and her "pie bed" at the Home Economics house—Melville Brister and her languages—Poothie Broeland going to Jeff Med.

Ruth Cilley and her telephone calls from Ken—Edith Class playing the organ in chapel—Marion Cranmer picking up a sister-in-law at Beaver—Dorothy Craven sewing in Bible class—June de Forest playing badminton—Margaret Di Paolo as Epsilon Alpha president—Roberta Fisk writing for the Youth Concerts—Sidelle Friedman and her engagement ring—Florence Gavin and Marguerite Hoos in white uniforms—Betsey Graham and her southern accent—Florence Hartzell keeping records for Alpha Kappa Alpha—Norma Harvey and music—Catherine Hilf cooking dinners on Monday night.

Lois Jacobus as intramural hockey manager—Jean Karras missing the Dartmouth Ice Carnival—Chickie Kopf and psychology—Ida Landrine getting stuck at Dartmouth—Janet Landrine and Dave—Ruth Livingston getting stories for the press bureau—Mildred Lotz in intramural sports—Marjorie Lowry dancing with John—Eleanor Lum being the first senior engaged—Jane Ann Mark taking care of the Chatterbox at Grey Towers—Ethel Moore as Senior Week chairman—when Audrey Oliver got her job—Anne Parker getting blind dates for senior ball—Peek Pohlman returning in February—Edith Prager as president of International Relations club—Helen Robbins worrying about buses for May Day—Eleanor Slugg and the Evangelical League—Edna Sorber winning the Review contest—Jo Sterling stage managing the Beelex plays—Lois Stewart and the Home Economics club—Nancy Tuppen painting flats—Loretta Turner transferring from Syracuse—Ruth Van Gaasbeek eating lunch in the chemistry lab—Mildred Van Nest sewing for everybody and everything. Betty Jane Wahl and Margy Lowry's brother—Grace White and her trip to Germany—Doris Wilder and her smooth new car—Kitty Wisse and her speed in shorthand—Dixie Woodcock going home practically every weekend—Dr. Scott receiving the Log dedication—the arguments in the Chatterbox—the Class of '40 winning the song contests—practicing for song contest at 6 o'clock in the morning—monopolizing the Chatterbox day and night—making the underclassmen get off the buses after Student Government meetings—Remember?!!!

ALUMNAE DAY

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 1)

made recently a large contribution to the Alumnae association drive; Mr. and Mrs. C. Waldo Cherry of Harrisburg, and Dr. and Mrs. Morgan H. Thomas of Fox Chase. Mr. Cherry and Dr. Thomas are trustees of the college.

Other guests are Dr. and Mrs. James E. Mooney, Dean Ruth L. Higgins, Miss Winifred Thompson, executive secretary; Mrs. Anita Slotter, president of the Mothers' association; Dr. Mary P. Clarke, head of the history department who will speak on the Beaver College Historical museum; Mr. Thomas Barlow, director of publicity, and Mrs. Barlow; Miss Isabelle Bull, a member of the Alumnae Interests committee; and Mr. Wilmer Greulich, director of public relations.

Dues will be collected by the treasurer in Beaver Hall lobby from 10:30 to 12:30 tomorrow morning.

Y.W.C.A. TEA

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 3)

at this time. Among the students participating will be Dorothy Grotz '42 and Marietta Sander '42, who will play the piano. Doris Haase '42 and Janet Morrison '41 will sing. The refreshments of strawberry and pineapple ices, cakes and nuts, will be served by twenty-two of the day students, who will also serve as hostesses.

To carry out the blue and white colors of the Y.W.C.A., the table decorations will include white roses and blue candles.

COMMENCEMENT

(Continued from Page 1, Col. 5)

MacFarland, Dorothy Moore, Ellen Rafferty, Janet Stringfield, Jean Worrall, and Lois Esau.

The graduation exercises will be held out of doors, if the weather is clear. In case of rain, they will be held in Murphy Chapel.

Annual Luncheon For Mothers Will Be Held June 11

Beaver college will hold its Annual Mothers' luncheon on Tuesday, June 11, 1940 in the Beaver hall dining room at 12:30 o'clock in honor of the mothers of the members of the Senior class of 1940.

Dean Ruth M. H. Zurbuchen, who is chairman of the luncheon, and Dean Ruth L. Higgins will extend greetings of welcome to the guests as an opening feature of the program.

Officers of the Mothers' association will be the special guests. They are as follows: president, Mrs. Anita Slotter; vice-president, Mrs. G. Stanley Margargal; secretary, Mrs. Robert Carlin; treasurer, Mrs. J. Harrison Thompson.

A faculty member will preside at each table as hostess. Blue and gold, the senior class colors, will be used for the decorations.

Another feature of the luncheon will be the introduction of the mothers of girls who have taken part in Senior activities. Mrs. Landrine and Mrs. Houstoun will have the distinct pleasure of being introduced as the Mothers of two daughters each in the Senior class. A special luncheon menu has been planned for the occasion.

Any girl whose mother is unable to attend has the privilege of bringing someone else to the luncheon.

After the luncheon the Mothers will be taken on a trip to the Bryn Athyn cathedral as a concluding feature of the program.

Five Seniors Are Awarded Chevrons

The presentation of gold and silver awards, Beaver blazers, and senior chevron awards was the most important feature of the annual Athletic association banquet, held on Tuesday evening, May 21.

The gold award, given for four years' participation in a varsity sport, was given to Marie Houstoun for her work in cheer-leading. The silver awards, for three years' participation, were given to Dorothy Patten, for basketball; to Margaret Nicholls, for hockey; and to Kathryn Williams, for riflery.

The blazers were given to one senior and to three juniors who had amassed the greatest number of points in athletics. The senior was Mary Wieland, and the juniors were Dorothy Hill, Eleanor Price, and June Newcomer.

The senior chevron awards, given for 300 points earned during the senior year, were given to Barbara Houstoun, Margaret Nicholls, Jane Carlin, Patricia Slotter, and Anne Castle.

Eleanor Price '41, the new president of the Athletic association, gave Barbara Houstoun, the retiring officer, the President's key; she presented the letters to members of the varsity rifle, tennis, and golf teams. Intramural letters were also given at the banquet.

Dorothy Patten, president of Pentathlon, the honorary athletic society, announced the names of the new pledges. They are Kathryn Williams '40 and Paige Weaver '43.

'Beaver Review' To Change Policy For Lectures

The Beaver Review announces a change in policy with regard to admission of persons other than students to the 1940-41 series of lectures which it sponsors. Heretofore the lectures have been open to the public without charge. Under the new policy, a fee of one dollar for the series will be required of all who wish to attend. This new arrangement does not affect students.

The purpose of the new policy is to insure a seat for all guests at the lecture and to avoid disappointing those people who arrive at the lecture after the limited number of unreserved seats has been exhausted. Tentative plans for next year include at least five lectures instead of the three of former years.

Tickets for the lecture series for people other than students may be reserved by application to Mr. Thomas G. Barlow, director of public relations.

Members of the faculty, personnel, and the community at large are urged to make reservations as soon as possible because of the limited number of tickets available.

Senior Class Hymn . . .

With hope and faith triumphant still,
With praise unto our God,
We magnify Thy Glorious Name,
Our staff and our Rod
Now may our lives unfold
In the shelter of Thy Grace,
And bless us with the light
Coming from Thy radiant face.

Dear Lord of light and glory now
Thy peace we seek in life;
Thy guidance in the way ahead
And strength in the strife.
The brotherhood of man
We will keep in all we do
And pledge our hearts to Thee
As an offering pure and true.
Amen.

Jane Castle Wins Annual Art Contest

The annual black and white contest for unaided student work in the Department of Fine Arts was judged by the members of the music department. The first prize was awarded to Jane Castle '42, and the second prize to Marian Martin '41. Ann Doerschuk received the freshman prize.

Mothers To Be Entertained At 'Brunch' Party

Marie Houstoun has planned the entertainment for the seniors and their mothers on Monday, June 10.

A "brunch" party for the Mothers and the seniors will be held in the Chatterbox on Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Following the party, the class day program will be given.

The seniors will have a picnic and bicycle ride at Valley Green at 4:30 o'clock. An organ recital will be given that afternoon for the mothers by Evelyn Brenner '39 in Taylor chapel.

Beclex will again present the play The Cradle Song on Monday night at 7:45 o'clock in Murphy gymnasium. Following the play there will be step singing on the Beaver Hall porch steps. The day students will be guests of the college for that night.

Ogontz 408

Loretta M. Crony

BEAUTY SALON

3 for $1.00

Mon., Tues., Wed., Thurs.

700 West Avenue Jenkintown

VENTURI

Fruit and Produce

A Dependable Wholesale Service

for

Colleges, Hotels, Clubs,
Hospitals, and Institutions

ANN'S BEAUTY SALON

1939 W. TIOGA STREET

Philadelphia, Pa.

SAGamore 4106

F. W. WOOLWORTH

Jenkintown

"We can supply your school needs"

Ernest's

BEAUTY SALON

Hair Styling and Permanent
Waves of Distinction

407 York Rd., Jenkintown, Pa.
OGONTZ 1388

BLAETZ BROTHERS
Incorporated

Printers of
BEAVER NEWS

JARRETT & ROCKLEDGE
AVES.
Fox Chase, Phila.

Lawndale Branch Office
6444 RISING SUN AVE.
Philadelphia

Employers Prefer
*I.Q. SECRETARIES

With the increasing demand for the college trained secretary, Interboro's placement results for 1938 far exceeded all previous records, in both the English and the Foreign Language secretarial fields.

*Interboro-Quality Secretaries, supplementing college education with Interboro Quality secretarial training, meet the most exacting demands of modern competitive business.

INTENSIVE SECRETARIAL COURSES
FOREIGN LANGUAGE STENOGRAPHY
(Spanish German French Italian)

Limited selective registration Day and Evening classes. Enroll early. Special summer sessions

152 West 42nd St. New York
INTERBORO Institute

P.S. - You'll get the job!

Elizabeth Arden offers a

CAREER COURSE

To prepare College Girls for the competition that awaits them next September!

You master the art of make-up.

You are taught how to use a comb and brush with a professional touch.

P.S. THEY GOT THE JOB. To prove to herself beyond doubt that good looks make a good impression in business, and are imperative to a successful career, Elizabeth Arden did this: She took in hand four college graduates who were unable to get jobs, because of their appearance. In four weeks, miraculous changes were made. P.S. These girls got jobs immediately. This experiment was fully described in an article in Mademoiselle, May issue.

CLASSES FORM JULY 8th

for an intensive four-weeks' tip-toe course.

Elizabeth Arden offers classes in exercise, posture and make-up, in the morning and the afternoon, to turn you into the woman you want to be. Send in the coupon below for a booklet that gives you further details.

Elizabeth Arden
691 FIFTH AVENUE • NEW YORK • PLAZA 3-5846

ELIZABETH ARDEN, INC.
691 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

Please send me your booklet,
"P. S. They Got the Job."

Name _____
Home Address _____ State _____
City _____ College _____