Everyday turns into a night. It is perhaps the only sure thing, the only thing we can count on in this all too often crazy world. Our day here at Beaver College is now turning into night, and the only thing we can be sure of at this point in our lives is that the sun will once again rise, not only in the eastern sky but in our lives as well.

And what a day it has been. We have learned so much more than we ever dreamed, both in and out of the classroom. Experiences we have had and people we have met have expanded our horizons to the point that we all know we are no longer the same individuals we were when we first set foot here four years ago.

And so we go on, not sure of anything but the fact that we changed. As we see the sun about to set, let us remember and reflect on what the day once was, and let the memories keep us warm as night approaches.

—Michelle Maier

My Days and Nights at Beaver were filled with... foreign languages and computer blitzes.
-Sabina A. D'Onofrio

hard labor, low pay, long hours, 20 page papers, fights with my girlfriend and llamas, lots and lots of llamas.
-Christopher Lutz

countless hours of lab work.
-Michelle Ripp

Stress, laughs and food, lots of food!
-Germyce McTillman

people, meetings, appointments, people, letters, phone calls, mail messages, people, handbooks, policies, procedures, people, fun lunches, gossip, classes, books, computers, papers, exams and people! But people who need people, are the luckiest people and that's me!
-Marie T. Gallagher

Laughter with my close friends and roommates, and long afternoon practices on the sports fields.
-Heidi Beth Johnson

fun, laughs, and great friends.
-Lisa Facciolo

long school days and late studying nights with some fun in between if you know what I mean!
-Jerome Smith, Jr.

Work! Word! Work! and, aaahh! My bed.
-Tracy L. Bunting

studying, researching, writing and re-writing, classes, cleaning, laundry, cooking, shopping, chauffeuring, working.
-Michelle Gabler

Satisfaction-knowing that graduation from college is hard work and I'm going to make it! Comfort- not all students at Beaver are under age 22. Gratitude- The "Beaver" environment was special and teachers/staff really care about the students!
-Richard A. Wagner

studying, friends, fun, and much beer!!
-Andrea De Maio

the realization that each passing day brings my future with it, and the fulfillment of my dreams is imminent.
-Karen Ann McFadden

fun, friends, and twisting the lyrics of "Between the Sheets."
-Christa Cardulla

My days were filled with visits to the library, meetings with professors, and fun with friends.
-Christine Soda

studying, stress, laughs, new faces and places, confusion, good friends, good times, great memories.
-Jennifer Egan
...my days were filled with naps. My nights were filled with classes and studying between visits around campus.

-MARY C. FOX

...water bottles, junk food, and oral presentations.

-CLAUDIA SUSAN AVERETTE

...dreams, goals, and frustrations. Now, that I'm closer to the final frontier between the college world and the real world, I'm glad I spent such days and nights at Beaver. I want the world to know I'm ready to take the challenge.

-LUIS G. PRADO

...frustration, confusion, successes, failures, happiness and sadness, and M.A.C., E.W., M.F.A.G., LL., M.D., K.P., S.M., and all my sociology partners in crime. You guys made my days and nights at Beaver something I'll never forget.

-JULIE A. DIEHL

...bothering Jen and Sara.

-STACEY PIZZA

...tons of self-examination and late night bug-out sessions.

-MATTHEW WOODCOCKS

...procrastination, pillow fights in the Castle Room 201 and many roommate bonding experience in the bathroom and on the balcony!!

-CHRISTINE MARIE THOMAS

...many late nights working in Boyer or Murphy or else following Stacey over to Jen and Sara's.

-DANIELLE ZEGARSKI

...days and nights at the Castle, long talks and walks with great friends, midnight calzones, interesting discussions with Everett ("Everet"), getting lost with Theresa, magical Coutilons. I'll always remember TRUST ME!, great memories and exciting adventures.

-CELIA M. SILVESTRE

...reading, reading, writing reaction sheets, research, research.

-JUDITH E. WELCH

...madness and pure insanity. Running from one place to the next- but it was wellworth it. After all, I'm graduating, aren't I?

-JESSICA SHER

...parties, friends, studying.

-JENNIFER A. GRANT

...days unfilled but nocturnal college classroom capers!

-JOHN L. GRAHAM JR.

...long hours in the studio.

-DANICA MAIER

...STRESS!

-COLEEN STONE

...good times with good friends, sad times with good friends, impossible deadlines with good friends, Smirnoff and Cheez Whiz with good friends.

-CARMELA LEWIS
...laughter. If it were not for my friends at Beaver I would not have made it. Thanks for all your support and love. I wish you all the best.

-ANABELA ANDRE

...new ideas, applications and concepts.

-ROSEMARY BUCHANAN

...centipede attacks, chemistry labs lasting 2 days without a break, Maura's attempts at Russian, sounds of popping corn.

-MARINA SHTEYN

...many good times freshman year: 1st W lounge parties-Christmas Around the World, little nanc nippin' it, "I gotta fix myself", many nights of getting all ready and never making it out, where's Meggan?, Castle steps: "She's got a c-c-c, she hit her head", "freedom", Ang-he's all outta friends, Tina-keep the tradition alive: rm. 110W. Dilworth, Steph-"Come get me!"-Thanks, Buddy!

-LISA PISTONE

...a lot of fun and hard work. Beaver has given me the courage to pursue my dreams and the confidence to make them come true.

-MARIA IAQUINTO

...a sense of accomplishment due to my classes and a heck of a lot of fun provided by all my closest friends!

-MARY ANN CREIGHTON

...homework, homework, homework, and hanging out with friends. Diane, Carrie, Kelly, Evan, Stephen and others. Especially going out with Kelly, Evan, and Stephan and a certain someone (Evan) being the designated driver but getting too drunk to drive home. The college drive-in where brought the carpet outside to sit on and we were freezing the whole time. My apartment senior year and wondering "What could happen or be taken next?"

-AMY IVINS

...studying, writing papers and trying to stay caught up with everything. There were also a lot of sleepless nights. It was great!!!

-NIKKIE R. GARMAN

...new ideas, applications and concepts.

-ROSEMARY BUCHANAN

...challenges and anticipation. The challenges came because after working a full day, I went to school to better myself through education. There were many nights that I didn't feel like going to class. A true challenge indeed. The anticipation came because every class was different and I never knew what it would bring. I truly enjoyed the time spent at Beaver College and I will always remember it.

-EDWARD C. HOFSTAEDTER

...merengue and salsa dancing, numerous concerts, ALA parties, incredible summers living on campus, Maui, Aztec, road trips, the beach. Cariocas 94-95.

-CAREY FRUMAN

...lots of laughter and some tears.

-MELISSA ANN BAILEY

...working out in the weight room, eating bananas and apples for dinner, waiting for a class to start, waiting for class to end, brown nosing my way to a bachelor's degree.

-JAMES SHEW
...Knights in shining armor, dragons to defeat, roses to smell, dreams fulfilled and dreams inspired. Thanks Beaver for Everything!

-Yasnaya C. Gaitan

...studying! friends! and great times!

-James P. Ruchalski

...duty and the "Duty Log", cramming for tests, BARS, programs, friends, writing papers, listening to the 80's music with Vicki, THESIS, labs, fun and laughs.

-Diane Tryciecky

...studying, studying, and more studying, and of course hanging with friends.

-Kristen Donahoo

...friends - Theresa, and Celia we made it, I wish Kristen was with us. I made a lot of great friends here: Alfredo, Alicia, Stephanie, Mauricio, Martin, Danielle, Carmella, Tracy, and especially Carlos. I wish we could all stay together and I hope we never lose touch. Beaver made us grow up and then some, we learned what we were capable of and what we were not. Thanks for all the great times and memories everyone.

-Kathleen Murphy

...fun, friends, stress, and a lot of great memories.

-Michelle Breen

...friends who made these last 4 years fun and memorable, studying and enough parties to last a lifetime.

-Laura Lesser

...books, studying, TV, and friends.

-Kelly L. Dux

...hard work, studying, and enjoying campus life with my friends.

-Barbara Mills

...limitations, deadlines, sleepless nights, never-ending days, new & best friends, laughter, tears, special memories- An Unforgettable Experience.

-Betsy Barkus

...many tests and papers but most of all filled with late nights spent with friends, going to the gym and gossiping in the dining hall.

-Kathleen Mellody

...many, many hours up in Murphy toiling over art projects, hanging out with the guys about the Greenwood Deli, weekly treks to "The Bank", and enjoying life with some of the greatest people I've ever met and ever will meet. (you know who you are and I will never forget you guys!).

-Nicole M. Mock
...Flirting, singing in the halls, Shabbat Dinners, Symbols of the Seasons, being the Club Goddess, putting up posters, gaming, movie nights, and the Renaissance Fair, working for AV and the Computer Center, my messy room, being an O.S.C, daydreaming of England, Prague, and Germany, friendship, love, silliness, smiles, and laughter.

-Theodore Banks

...Friday night Gallets, Being Den Mother in the Castle, endless meetings, lots of food and fights over the color orange with OPEC, late night oatmeal with Heather and Kara, trips to South Street, eating bagels and Lucky Charms, getting beat by Jeff, Peer Weekends and programs, singing with Heather, Kara, Lenore, eating tostitos and salsa at 2 am, hanging with Rose, ORIENTATION, telling people to call Steve's to find me, laughing, "That's Great, Make More", late nights in the studio, trips to WAWA and sharing things with Stacie, Teeny Weenies, meeting, and falling in love with Steve.

-Faith Trout

...the knowledge that the most valuable lessons in life cannot be learned in a classroom, but instead through one's own personal touch.

-Michelle Anne Rosin

...Faith, hope, and love.

-Sharon Kelly

...Studying, hanging out with friends in my room or their room. Watching movies in Stiteler or enjoying a comedian in the Chat.

-Kimberly S. Hall

...homework, talking on the phone, classes, stress, fun, and preparing for the next day.

-Renda E. Tate

...being on duty, the duty log, filling out countless numbers of work orders, cramming for tests, doing thesis, partying w/my friends (Diane, Jen, Stacey, Sara), "toking" up w/ Diane and talking to John in the wee hours of the night.

-Vicki L. Mish

...Lots of fun with Peachy, Kurtz, Wendee, Kamili, Young, Mary, K.T., Fred, Jen P., Suzanna, and Holly. Lots of midnight basketball games, late night Denny's runs, WAWA runs, sno-football, IV road trips, Flep 1993.

-Justin Blocksom

...endless studying!

-Michele Schulz

...Chaotic peacefulness, stressful relaxation, nervous preparedness, concrete abstractness, structured creativity, and determined anxiety.

-Michael Burke

...Playing football on Sega against my buddies: Jerome, Eric Keys, Nate, Coupe, Derrick, Trottie, Shaws, Adam, Frank. Dan Williams, Dan Wessener, Orik, Alem, Erik Ward, David Allen, Nick, Tom, and the Freshmen on my hall. It also included sitting desk, reminiscing with the fellas about old times at Beaver College like B-Ball, getting our Freak-on, going to Butt-Naked Tuesdays, sitting in the "Cafe" with friends busting on people, and finally, after all of this, I would find time to study. P.S. I would like to say what's up to all the beautiful women on campus.

-Anthony Smith
...adventures with Ellyn, midnight mac n' cheese, late nights at Boyer, partying with friends, Pictionary with Kathleen and Tim, and creating memories, that will last forever.

-Theresa McFetridge

...Phone booths and early mornings. Nightmares and daydreams. Music and the sweet sound of conversation until the wee hours.

-Brooke R. Woodruff

...everything, except sleep.

-Bethzaida Cardona

...talking w/ Jeff G., meetings, playing w/ my LEGO's, on-going training, staring at the computer screen, listening to those little tapes, going to Denny's, South St., and the Ballet, doing rounds, telling ghost stories, being Physical Plant Employee of the month, showing people my room, playing the piano in Stiteler and the Castle, telling people, "Yes, they are real plants", telling people, "Sorry, Jeff's not here", peer programs and weekends, ORIENTATION, eating Tostitos and salsa at 2 am, playing hide and seek in the Castle, talking with students.

-Steve Powell Dilworth

...hard work and determination but also shared experiences with all the friends I have made over the years.

-Doreen D. Hamilton

...emotions and friendships. I'll always remember these years that will never come back. Even though I'm happy to graduate, I know I'm going to miss you all.

-Yazmin Gonzalez

...conversations with Mookie who never fails to bedazzle me.

-Maura Ott

...Stereos blasting out: Nirvana, Pearl Jam, Cranberries, Meatloaf...Meatloaf???? ON STRIKE! ON STRIKE! ON STRIKE! ON STRIKE! BEAVER COLLEGE IS ON STRIKE! Blind Melon, Dada, U2, Aerosmith...Aerosmith???? Well thank God they're clean and sober. ON STRIKE! ON STRIKE! BEAVER COLLEGE IS ON STRIKE! Crash Test Dummies, Public Enemy, The Doors... The Doors??? Is this the 90's or the 60's? Well thank God the strike is over. Welcome back. Smashing Pumpkins, Bruce Springsteen...Bruce Springsteen??? I don't know what to say. Nine Inch Nails, Beastie Boys, now we're cooking. Faft, Yeah, I said Faft. You never heard of Faft? Where ya been boy? I mean...the only way to study is to have Faft playing across the hall from you. Thank God it's May.

-Bernard P. Gasiorowski
After eight years at Beaver College, it is time to say goodbye to one of our favorite staff members, Joanie Slotter. As the Assistant Dean of Students, Joanie has accomplished much more than overseeing Residence and Commuter Life and New Student Orientation. Students could see her eagerness to help from the first moments of orientation their freshman year. She often is the first contact they have with Beaver College, and from her they learn that there is always a listening ear available to hear their concerns.

Joanie has had an impact on a countless number of people. She has demonstrated her generosity by giving the gifts of herself and her time to individual students, student organizations, staff and faculty during her years here. She always goes “the extra mile,” and that has truly distinguished her as a campus leader.

It is difficult to total the number of lives Joanie has impacted. She has worked to make Beaver a stronger community and has helped others understand the importance of their interactions with students. There is no doubt that Beaver College is a better place because she was here. We will miss Joanie and wish her the best of luck in Dallas and in her future endeavors.

“Great leaders are like eagles. They don’t flock. You find them one at a time.”

To the Class of 1995:

Benjamin Franklin implores us to Obtain the advantages arising from an increase in knowledge.

And prevent, as much as may be, the mischievous consequences that would attend a generous ignorance among us.

True merit consists in an inclination joined with an ability to serve mankind.

Which ability is (with the blessing of God) to be acquired or greatly increased by true learning;

And should, therefore, be the great aim and end of all learning.

It is the responsibility of all of us who have been the fortunate recipients of higher education to take this entreaty to heart. Intellectual pursuit is not solely for the enrichment of self and family; it carries with it the obligation to think critically about the issues of the day; to become involved in the life and needs of those around us, and to act with integrity and responsibility. May you forever rise to the challenge of this, the College's mission, and may all your days be filled with the joy of learning and active engagement in life.

With sincere best wishes,

God for all the blessings He has bestowed upon me throughout the years. Among those blessings, are my parents and grand parents. Without their countless sacrifices and support, I couldn't have gotten half this far. I am also grateful for the wonderful friendships made along the way; they have made my college education an experience to remember and cherish. Last but not least, I want to thank Dr. Pomeroy, Dr. Goldstone, and Dr. McCrae for modeling what a true "teacher" is. I will take what they've taught me and put it to good use.

I’ll get up and fly away… going where the wind don’t blow so strange. I’m going where the water tastes like wine. The wheel is turning… Stranger ones have come by here before they flew away. If you get confused, just listen to the music play, may the four winds blow you safely home. And I know you… I’ve got seven minutes, five have slipped away. When life looks like easy street, there is trouble at your door. What I want I haven’t got and what I got I need. Once in a while you get shown the light in the strangest of places if you look at it right. For this is all a dream we dreamed one afternoon long ago.

This year's Mr. Beaver Award went to Chris Coia representing the castle as Danny from Grease. Representing Third Dilworth was Tom Henehan coming in second as Elvis. This year's third place winner was Andy Graham playing Grandpa Simpson. Both the participants and the audience enjoyed the annual contest.
Much time and energy is put into the Mr. Beaver Contest. Each hall is encouraged to select one male to represent the hall along with an escort. The halls create and individual theme that the male portrays. The contestants are required to compete in four different categories: swimsuit, talent, formal wear, and an interview question.
For King the choices were Eric Keys, Mike Fritzen, Frank Luciani, Andy Grahm, and Dan McMulling. For Queen the choices were Natasha Rhodes, Julie Diehl, Dawn Lacquintano, Melanie Henderson, and Donnelle Crouse. The counting of the ballots resulted in Frank Luciani as King and Dawn Lacquintano as Queen for this year's semi-formal.

Semi-formal 1994 transformed the Castle into the Halian Wonderland. The annual event was held on November 19 and was sponsored by the Residence Hall Council. This year's court was made up of a male and female from each class. The court consisted of Adam Tuzman and Nicole Mozzillo (commuters), Michael Schafer and Megan McCormick (1998), Tom Henehan and Victoria Gowat (1997), and Pete Rotondo and Karen Woodeschick (1996).
On October 26, 1994, SADD sponsored the first annual Ghost-Out Day.

Beginning at 9:00am, someone “died” every ten minutes to represent the 48 people who are killed each day due to drunk driving crashes. By 5:00pm, the 48 people lined up outside the cafeteria to “make a statement without saying a word”.

The purpose of this event was to heighten awareness among the college community as well as send the message that drunk driving is one of the leading killers of the nation. Special thanks goes out to the Beaver College members and non-members for their participation.

Little did you know four years ago when you wrote that quote what an outstanding and successful four years of college you would have. You have accomplished SO MUCH, Cammie, and we are so very, very proud of you and wish you a lifetime of love, happiness,

Dear Betsy,

Grandchildren are indeed dividends!
We are blessed grandparents.
Betsy, you were our first grandchild; you were born on June 17 at 6:17 AM. The moment we saw you (our blue-eyed cherub) you crept into our hearts. We just knew you would be special! (You certainly are extraordinary!) You are bright, sweet and loving.
Betsy, you have given us a great deal of joy and pride in all your achievements. Watching you grow up and being part of your life has been most gratifying and enlightening experience of our lives.
We hope the future will hold good health, happiness and fulfillment in your life. May God Bless You.

Your loving grandparents,
Mom-Mom and Grandaddy

Nayi,

No one is more proud of you than I, your future husband. Your graduation is an achievement which marks the beginning of a successful life together. You are truly a blessing and an inspiration in my life.
All my love,
Kerry

You’ve both come a long way in your lifetimes. Even though this graduation is a very special occasion, it is only the beginning of your adventures. May your lives grow as your beautiful talents are discovered. We are extremely proud of the two of you. Reach for the stars and build your dreams together!!

I would like to send you a sunbeam,
Or the twinkle of some bright star,
Or a tiny piece of the downy fleece
   That clings to a cloud afar.

I would like to send you the essence
Of myriad sunkissed flowers,
Or the lilting song, as it flows along,
Of a brook through fairy bowers.

I would like to send you the dewdrops
That glisten at break of day,
And then at night the eerie light
That mantles the Milky Way.

I would like to send you the power
That nothing can o'erthrow . . .
The power to smile and laugh the while
A trav'ling thro' life you go.

“No one is more dangerously insane than one who is sane all the time: he is like a steel bridge without flexibility, and the order of his life is rigid and brittle.”
- Alan Watts

Betsy,

A child’s world is fresh and new and beautiful, full of wonder and excitement. It is our misfortune that most of us lose that clear-eyed vision, that true instinct for what is beautiful and awe-inspiring before we reach adulthood. As you teach, may you give each child the gift of a sense of wonder so indestructible that it lasts throughout their life.

Congratulations, we love you, we are proud of you and may you always remain a little insane!

Love,
Mom, Aunt Robin, & Michael
Dear Lisa,

Congratulations to our very special girl as you receive your degree from Beaver College.

You have climbed hills and mountains to achieve this goal - and we have admired your confidence and loved you beyond words every step of the way.

We will cherish the memories you made on Beaver’s hockey field and want you to know how very proud we always were of our fiesty right wing.

The best is yet to come!

Much love, Mom and Dad

Dear Betsy,

Is it true that four years have come and gone? Through all the good and challenging times we've seen a lot of changes in ourselves which have helped us to grow closer as a couple. We haven't been able to spend much time together, but I knew that someday it would pay off for the both of us. Everyday that we spent apart was worth it when you were able to come home.

I knew in my heart that your personality, hard work and dedication would help you reach the goals that you set for yourself. You did it BABE! The day has arrived that this chapter is our book of life together would come to an end and I look forward to spending the rest of my life with you.

Love Always,
Jay
Dear Carmela:

On your graduation my heart travels back to the first time I held you in my arms. My dreams for you were so big and so far in the future yet in no time at all you've fulfilled those dreams and more. You've given me so many memories and I want you to know I'm proud of everything you've accomplished and the woman you've become.

Lovingly,
Your Mom & Friend

Dear Carmela:

As I write this, I am the proudest of parents. But, I am sure that everything you have achieved to date will pale in the light of your future goals and accomplishments. If I were to be asked who has the right to feel the most pride in you, I would say it has to be yourself. I am so grateful to have you as my daughter.

Love, Dad

PS: Go out there and get their attention!!

Carmela, when you left for college Kevin told all his friends how proud of you he was. He said, “My sister is going to finish school and make something of her life.” I know he is smiling down on you.

Dear Tracy,

Our hearts are full of love and pride for you on this your graduation day. On this day you’ve seen your academic and personal goals to fruition. Now it’s time to reflect on the past four years, and take with you and cherish all your fond memories. Here’s to your continued success, and may you have health, happiness, and love. Know that our love and admiration is with you always.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations and Best Wishes to the 1995 Graduates of Beaver College.

The Bunting Family
The time is coming hear,
The end is coming fast.
Our Beaver years are at an end,
We wish that they could last.
We're all good friends, let's not forget
The fun throughout the years.
And although graduation is a happy time,
It's hard to forget the tears.
But when the time has finally come
To go our separate ways,
Let's hold on to the way we were
And our memorable Beaver days.
This book is full of all those times
When we were all together
The way we were is in the past,
But remember it in your hearts forever.

Warmest Congratulations
