OUR LIFE IS LIKE SOME VAST LAKE
THAT IS SLOWLY FILLING
WITH THE STREAM OF OUR YEARS
As the waters creep slowly upward.
THE LANDMARKS OF THE PAST ARE ONE BY ONE SUBMERGED
But there shall always be memory
TO LIFT
THE HEAD
TIDE
Until the lake is overflowing
- Madame X

President Ronald Reagan gave Soviet leader Mikhail Gorbachev a red-carpet welcome. The two world leaders met in Washington, D.C., for a three-day summit meeting on arms control and other superpower concerns.

Death and destruction followed in the wake of the December 1988 earthquake that devastated the country of Armenia and killed tens of thousands.

The world watched as three California gray whales spent more than two weeks trapped in the icy waters of the Arctic Ocean in Alaska. American and Soviet efforts finally freed the whales.

Waving his arms in victory, George Bush won the 1988 race for the presidency, promising Americans a "kinder, gentler nation."

"ALF" the lovable Alien Life Form starred in his own NBC hit series. America's favorite alien also appeared on various merchandise.

"Rain Man" received eight Academy Award nominations, including Best Picture. Dustin Hoffman earned a nomination for Best Actor for his role as an autistic man being eased out of his inheritance by his brother, Tom Cruise.
The Irish rock group U2 won a 1988 Grammy Award for Album of the Year for "The Joshua Tree," which sold 12 million copies. Album hits included "With or Without You" and "I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For."

Michael Jackson's "Bad" sold more than 39 million copies worldwide. The chart-breaking album was the first album in history to generate five number one singles, including "The Way You Make Me Feel."

Panama's embattled strongman Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega waved to supporters in the presidential palace in Panama City.

With the launch of the space shuttle Discovery, America re-entered space after the 1986 Challenger disaster. The successful launch took place at Kennedy Space Center in September 1988.

Los Angeles Dodgers winning pitcher and World Series MVP Orel Hershiser helped the Dodgers defeat the Oakland As 5-2 in the final game.
Roseanne Barr and John Goodman starred in one of the 1989 season's top-rated new comedy series, "Roseanne," airing on ABC.

Awareness, education and prevention were the watchwords in fighting acquired immune deficiency syndrome (AIDS). Alarming statistics urged a bioscience company to develop an AIDS test that shows results in as little as five minutes.

The 1988 drought damaged crops and slowed barge traffic all across the nation. Record-high temperatures and little rainfall also threatened wildlife and livestock.

Plastic explosives were blamed for the crash of the New York-bound Pan Am Flight 103 in Lockerbie, Scotland, Dec. 21, 1988, which killed all 259 people on board, plus about a dozen people on the ground.

A national smoking ban went into effect on all domestic flights under two hours, raising smokers' ire and non-smokers' satisfaction.

It was a never-ending adventure in "Toontown" in the 1988 hit "Who Framed Roger Rabbit?", which cleverly combined delightful animation with a comedy-adventure.
The nation commemorated the 25th anniversary of John F. Kennedy's death. Kennedy was shot as he rode in a caravan with his wife, Jackie, and Texas governor John Connally, in Dallas, Texas, Nov. 22, 1963.

It's a bird! It's a plane! It's Superman's birthday! The granddaddy of comic book heroes celebrated his 50th anniversary in style in 1988.

Hurricane Gilbert crossed the island of Jamaica, leaving thousands homeless. The hurricane also spawned tornados in Texas.

Brian Boitano of Sunnyvale, Calif., won the men's Olympic figure skating competition in Calgary. Boitano was the first American to capture the gold at the XV Winter Olympics.

Rock stars Tracy Chapman, Sting and Bruce Springsteen sang for the "Human Rights Now!" concert for Amnesty International during a six-week tour of 20 cities on five continents.

The San Francisco 49ers beat the Cincinnati Bengals 20-16 in the last few minutes of Super Bowl XXIII in Miami.

Congratulations

Jolene

Someone has said that two of the most important things you can give your children are 'Roots and Wings'. We gave you your roots, but you have earned you wings through desire, discipline and determination. As you begin your career in PT may you soar like an eagle, helping those with broken pinions and wounded spirits.

Congratulations!

Mom and Dad
