For our Lisa,

Success is an abstract that only the individual can define ... What you decide is success will determine how your life will be defined ... in the future. For now, in the past, and forevermore, to our family you are a success ... your most recent achievement commences another harvest for our ancestors ... And for you especially. For you, Miss Lady, chose to demonstrate once again, the ability, courage, confidence, and determination we all know you possess ... You chose to challenge your potential ... You are the woman that now provides the family another (of many) occasion to reflect, to boast, to toast, to express more elaborately our unwavering love, faith, and respect for you ... To our family, you are one of the most outstanding SISTERS of all time. It is both a privilege and pleasure to bestow upon you our congratulations and prayers for the brighest of futures ... and to thank ALLAH for blessing us with you ...

LOVE WHATEVER, WHENEVER, WHEREVER,
FOREVER YOUR FAMILY

P.S. You're still our baby.
