The Weaver

My life is but a weaving
   Between my Lord and me;
I cannot choose the colors
   Nor all the pattern see.
Sometimes He chooses sorrow,
   And I in foolish pride
Forget He sees the upper
   And I the under side.
Not till the loom is silent
   And the shuttles cease to fly
Will He reveal the pattern
   Or tell the reason why.
The dark threads are as needful
   In the skillful weaver’s hand
As the threads of gold and silver
   In the pattern He has planned.

A Special Thanks To Bob Nimorwitz For His Photography Help.
We hope that within these pages you will find the photographs and words necessary to recapture the spirit of this year.

And after the book is on the shelf, don't forget that it is your only permanent record of this memorable year.

Use it again—
— to remember a face
— to recall a place
— to relive a game
— to remember a name

THANKS for purchasing this yearbook. Its value will increase with the passing years.

Enjoy the memories!
