when we had arrived
we quickly took our places lightly pressing hands in bright anticipation of the dance.
we began
but stumbled
and jumbled the steps glanced at each other to capture routine nervously followed bending and gliding
till intricate patterns were finally performed without even thinking.
we chained
we whirled
in unison . . .
solitary exiting the library i mused sleepward humming glancing catching light sporadic snatched a zephyred leaf applied it to illumination inspection . . . reflection. there fused with livid carotene webbed between decaying cells stretched with veins to points beyond imagination there was i an entity.
i began to function counterpoint grinning

sighing
in rhythms of my own entwining now with diverse multiples of one remaining then uniquity
my growth was notched with others' on the outlook
of the we
as separately
i vectored
inward outward
and beyond.
Art

In placid hours well-pleased we dream
Of many a brave, unbodied scheme.
But form to lend, pulsed life create,
What unlike things must meet and mate:
A flame to melt—a wind to freeze;
Sad patience—joyous energies;
Humility—yet pride and scorn;
Instinct and study; love and hate; Audacity—reverence; These must mate, and fuse with Jacob’s mystic heart,
To wrestle with the Angel—Art.
Herman Melville

dreamers, dreams' concretizers
