BEAVER COLLEGE
JENKINTOWN, PENNSYLVANIA
FOREWORD — When one reaches the end of something, one reaches the time to reflect. Not until we have finished one experience and have gone on to encounter a new one, do we ever truly realize the worth of the former.

We seniors have now come to the end of an experience, our college career, and will journey on through this life with its memories ever present. To record the final significance of these college years through the events of this last one is impossible. However, we hope that perhaps as we look back through this book in the years to come it will hold those memories ever present in our hearts and that we shall once again be filled with the college spirit that once so completely enveloped us.

DEDICATION

In realization of the monumental structure of the past, the thoughts and their manifestations upon which the present rests and the future impends—

In realization of the struggle to survive as time casts her shadows upon that structure—

In realization of the necessity to progress beyond the mere act of surviving—

We the class of 1953, graduating in this centennial year, in this year of reflection upon the past and the structure it has created, in this year of anticipation for the plans of a structure to come, do hereby dedicate our memorial book to the future of Beaver College and the height to which she may rise.

CLASS OFFICERS

So it is, perhaps with reluctance, that we now have reached our final college year. But when we take time to think about our experience at Beaver, we are satisfied. We knew little upon arrival; we have gained much, and still life has rich treasure in store for us. Throughout our varied experiences, the courses we have taken, the extra-curricular work we have participated in, and the girls with whom we have become acquainted, we find that all have been instrumental in our experience of life. Now ends a part of our life never to be recaptured. Now we wend our separate ways, perhaps to meet at some crossroad, perhaps never to meet again.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

“I hereby pledge my honor as a Student of Beaver College, that I will uphold the ideals and the traditions of this our College; that I will never, by any unworthy act, dishonor her name; and that by my own respect and reverence, I will encourage others to realize their similar responsibilities. Thus striving together toward a common purpose and universal goal, we will strengthen our Alma Mater.”

This is the oath of each Student Council member taking office. These members constitute a kind of Congress, in that they act as representatives of the entire student population—the Student Government Association. In subscribing to the privileges of self-government, both the Student Council and the Student Government Association make it their purpose to further the best interests of the College and of the student body and to encourage responsibility and loyalty among students.

The President
BEVERLY GIFFORD

The Forum of Arts and Sciences affords the college and the community a distinguished and balanced program of entertainment. Besides stimulating the interest of the student body in various cultural pursuits, Forum is also sponsor of the extracurricular activities on campus. Three feature events of this year were: Bill Davies, Dixieland Jazz Concert; Sacheverell Sitwell, poet and writer; and Elsa Lanchester, well-known comedienne.

HONOR COUNCIL

Honor Council is composed of elected members of each class who administer the Honor System. The Honor System at Beaver College is concerned with academic matters and is that extension of self-government whereby each student may be held responsible for her own conduct and for that of her fellow students.

NOMINATING COUNCIL

The purpose of Nominating Council is twofold: the first is to preside over all student elections by preparing election slates and ballots of students eligible for office, counting these ballots and generally directing all campaign activity, and stimulating interest in voting; the second is to carry out the extracurricular Point System, which prevents a student from assuming too many offices, thus safeguarding campus organizations and scholarship against deterioration.

DORMITORY COUNCIL

Dormitory Council is established to create and enforce rules concerning House government and to be responsible for the general decorum of the students on campus.

DAY STUDENT COUNCIL

The Day Student Council consists of a representative group, chosen to deal with the problems of the day students, and endeavors to promote a closer relationship with the resident students of Beaver.

STUDENT COUNSELORS

The student counselors are the girls who help the freshmen get acquainted with and oriented in college life. As one of the sources of guidance for the freshmen, the counselors are chosen for their good qualities of character, understanding, judgment, patience, and common sense.

"The members of the Young Women's Christian Association unite in the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God—striving to make this life possible for all people."

MANAGERIAL BOARD

Managerial Board is that branch of the Athletic Association Board which is interested in Varsity and Intramural Sports. Its purpose is to set up and to stimulate interest in the intramural sports program including not only the intramural games between classes and dorms, but also the program of learning and practicing individual and duo sports. One purpose of setting up the intramural program is to supplement and help stimulate the varsity program.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Athletic Association is to develop interest in all sports, to create a spirit of good sportsmanship, and to supervise organized athletic activities in cooperation with the Department of Health and Physical Education. Aside from varsity sports its many activities are to sponsor intramural athletics, Fun-Athletic Week, ski week-end, play days for local high schools, and the A.A. banquet.

Composed largely as a photographic and literary record of the students with whom we have lived and worked for the past year, the organizations, and the activities, the Beaver Log, a yearly publication of the Senior Class, is published for the enjoyment of the entire student body.
The college literary magazine, The Beaver Review, is published four times a year by a staff which selects the best of the material contributed by the students. Such works as poems, short stories, essays, reviews—even short dramas—are supplemented by interesting illustrations to provide a means of displaying Beaver's talent in these fields.
"Published by and for the students of Beaver College," the Beaver News is a bi-weekly newspaper which covers campus events of interest to the students. A course in journalism is required of all students who work on the News. Dr. Belle Matheson, professor of English, is faculty adviser of the publication.
CAMPUS CHEST

Campus Chest is an organization that has united all the fund-gathering projects on campus into one drive. It enables the students to donate to various organizations and charities collectively—giving only once throughout the year. It includes such organizations as W.S.S.F., United Fund, Red Cross, March of Dimes, and others.

RED CROSS

The Red Cross Club at Beaver is the organization established to perform activities parallel to those performed by the National Red Cross. This group makes monthly visits to surrounding hospitals to entertain and talk to war patients and in the spring of each year sponsors a Blood Drive.
Canterbury Club is an organization designed to supplement the religious and social activities of the Episcopalian girls on the Beaver Campus.

CANTERBURY CLUB

STUDENT VOLUNTEER MOVEMENT

The Student Volunteer Movement for Christian Missions is a fellowship of students joined in a common declared purpose, “to devote their life work to the world mission of Christ’s Church.” During the year the S.V.M. has emphasized Bible studies and opportunities for Christian service in America and around the world.

HILLEL

Beaver's Jewish students find, through Hillel activities, opportunities for social and educational programs both on campus and in the Philadelphia area. The members sponsor speeches, teas, chapel services, informal dances, and discussion groups.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club exists to promote the spiritual, social, and intellectual welfare of the Catholic students. Among the activities are included a Day of Recollection, visits to charitable institutions, dances, and timely discussions.
SOCIOMETRY CLUB

To create and to further the interest and understanding of human welfare through the application of sociology, and to promote better group relationships among the students of Beaver College and other associations is the purpose of the Sociology Club.

PSYCHOLOGY CLUB

The purpose of the Psychology Club is to stimulate and to maintain an interest in the science of Psychology as well as related subjects. It presents outside speakers as well as films and discussions. The club, although only in its second year of organization, has over sixty members.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

By establishing projects which are of benefit to the college and to the girls themselves, the Home Economics Club is organized to give girls an opportunity to get practical experience in this field.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club endeavors to maintain an active interest in chemistry among the students, and to introduce them to current trends in chemical research. Prominent speakers from Philadelphia and the surrounding area are guests throughout the year. The topics range from the qualities desirable in chemists to the nature of research and of work in the chemical industry.
KEY AND CUE

The organization on the Beaver Campus which endeavors to combine the creative talents of the students is Key and Cue. It is customary for this club to present each year an original musical show. The script, musical scores, settings, and costumes are all handled by the student body.

CHOIR

The Beaver Chapel Choir is directed by a Beaver alumna, Mrs. Dorothy Haupt. The Choir sings at Monday chapel services and at Christmas and Easter vesper services. The Choir also has singing engagements with various churches in the Philadelphia area.
The purpose of the National Students Association is to provide two tangible bonds between colleges and universities, other student groups, and our own college. It is an organization dedicated to serving student interests in academic, social, and practical affairs. Here at Beaver, N.S.A. helps us particularly with our Student Government, Student Council, Nominating Council, and Honor Council, for it provides us with much valuable information gathered from the experiences of other schools and compiled by the organization.

The function of the International Relations Club on the Beaver Campus is to stimulate interest in political affairs both of a national and international nature.
The Beaver College Glee Club represents the college musically and serves to provide a musical stimulant within the college itself. During the year the group sings at various churches, colleges, and civic organizations in the Philadelphia area. The annual concert in March is given in conjunction with a men's club, this year that of Lafayette.
THEATRE PLAYSHOP

The Theatre Playshop endeavors to stimulate interest and student participation in the dramatic arts and to arouse an appreciation of the living theatre. It is the custom of the organization to present two major productions a year, this year's being Pride and Prejudice and The Winter's Tale, and also to sponsor the Interclass Play Contest held each spring.

MODERN DANCE CLUB

The Modern Dance Club is organized primarily to develop interest in all the forms of the modern dance, stressing the phases of exercise, technique, and choreography. The club's creative ability is presented in the annual May Day pageant, the one production on campus which centers around the work of this group.
ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

The honorary society in philosophy on the Beaver campus is Alpha Kappa Alpha. Similar to other honorary organizations, this group endeavors not only to recognize outstanding students in its particular field, but also to maintain the active interest in philosophy of those students.

PI DELTA EPSILON

Pi Delta Epsilon is the national honor fraternity in journalism. This honorary fraternity is pledged to the promotion of student participation in undergraduate publications and seeks to establish a code of ethics among the staffs of the individual college publications. It is the purpose of the fraternity to elevate the cause of journalism, to foster the mutual welfare of student publications, and to reward the journalists working on the student publications for their efforts, services, and accomplishments by admission to its membership.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi, an honorary society in education, aims to provide a means of recognition for outstanding students of Education. Its activities include a tea for prospective students and the sponsorship of speakers from the field of education.

PSI CHI

The purpose of Psi Chi is primarily to advance the science of psychology; and secondly to encourage, stimulate, and maintain scholarship of the individual members in all academic fields, particularly in psychology.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

Alpha Psi Omega is the honorary dramatic fraternity established to provide an honor society for those achieving a high standard of work in any of the phases of the theatrical arts. It endeavors to establish a group that can act as supervisor for any type of production given on the college campus, thus helping to raise the standard of such productions to the highest possible level, ever striving for professional technique.

PENTATHLON

Pentathlon, the honorary sports organization, endeavors to foster a greater interest in all forms of athletics and to honor those students who have shown interest and ability in sports and have manifested good sportsmanship at all times.
Lambda Delta Alpha is Beaver's senior honor society whose purpose is to encourage scholarship and leadership of the students. Members are chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership, and character by the Committee on Honors and are approved by the faculty. Recognition of new members is made each year on Honors Day.

BETSY SCHNEIDER

WHO'S WHO

This honor comes in recognition of the merit and accomplishment of students chosen each year by a committee composed of administration, faculty, and students. Membership is based on a student’s excellence and sincerity in scholarship and leadership, her participation in extracurricular and academic activities, and her potential usefulness to society. As a result of this recognition, each of the new members will appear in the 1952-53 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

SPORTS
HOCKEY TEAM

This year Beaver had its first hockey season since 1937 without a defeat, though the Alumnae and Temple kept the college from having an untied team. The successful hockey season can be accredited to the constant united work of coach and team and to the cooperation, spirit, and sportsmanship shown in every game by the entire squad.

BASKETBALL TEAM

The 1953 basketball team ended its season with four games won and three lost. The season started with a 51-41 victory over the Alumnae. The next two games, however, were lost to Ursinus and Temple, but the following three games with Penn, Bryn Mawr and Chestnut Hill were all Beaver victories.
RIFLERY TEAM

This year, the riflery team added another to its record of many undefeated varsity seasons, under the coaching of Mr. Linford Schober. The sport is being temporarily discontinued next year, and the entire school will indeed regret the loss of Coach Schober, who is indisputably responsible for the outstanding reputation Beaver has gained for never having been below third place in the National Women's Inter-collegiate competition.

SWIMMING TEAM

The spirit of this year's swimming team was the strongest that Beaver has experienced in recent years. Although the team lost three of its five meets, the eagerness to win was never lacking; each member did her best to support her team properly. If the same spirit prevails in the varsity returning next year, it is quite likely that an undefeated season will result.
LACROSSE TEAM

The 1952-53 season, one of the most outstanding in Beaver's sports history, was made such by the undefeated hockey team and Beaver's first undefeated lacrosse team. Several of the players made Philadelphia Association teams, and with the many fine prospects on the 1953 team, hopes are high for an equally successful lacrosse season this spring.

MRS. CONKLIN

SOFTBALL TEAM

Defeating Chestnut Hill, Drexel, and Penn, the 1952 softball team proved to be a strong one. The two losses of the season were to Temple and Ursinus. With many lettermen returning to the field this year, the softball team should have another excellent record.
ACTIVITIES
SOPH HOP

Swaying palm trees, exotic music, and grass skirts were fused into the Hawaiian-flavored "Hula Hop" sponsored by the Sophomore Class on November first in Murphy Gym.
SONG CONTEST
The Greenie Freshmen sang about their first day at Beaver; the Sophomore Class hailed the Beaver student of one century ago; the Jolly Juniors shouted the news of Beaver’s sale and the move to the new campus; while the Stately Seniors reminisced. The spirit of Song Contest will be hard to forget as will be the excited shouts of the victorious Juniors.
The Centennial Sweetheart Promenade lived up to the reputation of Junior Proms in the past. The biggest social function on campus was highlighted by the music of Vincent Lopez, the freshman court, and the choosing of the queen, Paula.
The fall production of Theatre Playshop was the traditionally staged comedy of manners, Jane Austen's "Pride and Prejudice." The play was directed by Mary McConnell as her senior recital.

"THE WINTER'S TALE"
The Beaver College Centennial Fine Arts Festival reached its height with the production of Shakespeare's "The Winter's Tale." Costumes in royal color, professional sets, and a superb cast added up to a "wintery tale with a summery ending."
A. A. SHOW
WATER BALLET

Rip Van Winkle woke up again for three days in December. His only contact with our modern society was a newspaper “Night Extra.” Rip learned from the newspaper that “Men from Mars” were invading earth, “Stormy Weather” was predicted, and members of the social set were making their “Debut.” He read the critics’ reviews of the ballet, and a current best seller. The whole newspaper, however, proved to be a puzzle to him; so he went back to sleep, never fully realizing what he had seen at the A.A. Water Show — “Night Extra.”
INTERCLASS PLAY CONTEST

Interclass Play Contest

The theatrical talents of each class are brought to light annually by Inter-class Play Contest. The classes not only compete in acting but also in the designing of sets, lighting, costumes, and all other phases of stage work. A panel of judges is chosen to select the best of the four one-act plays and also the best actress. The combination of fun, pleasure, hard work, and friendly competition makes the evening enjoyable for all.

MAY DAY COMMITTEE

CENTENNIAL MAY DAY

The theme of this centennial May Day was the recounting of Beaver's first one hundred years. Through narration, pageant, music, and dance, the colorful events of Beaver's past were unfolded, ending in an abstract portrayal of the hopes for Beaver's future.
