FOREWORD

We fully realize the meaning of our college venture as the day of our graduation approaches and we seniors look to the future. It is our hope that in the years to come the following pages will bring back pleasant memories of days gone by. Our years on the Beaver campus were challenging to each of us, but our life in the future holds a still greater challenge.

DEDICATION

This year the Class of 1951 would like to pay highly deserved tribute to a couple who have contributed much during our years at Beaver College to mold our intellect, our social thought and our character.

Of her we remember a cheerful smile, a soft, warmhearted greeting, welcoming the students in her home, always maintaining an air of hospitality and guiding our thinking and studying in her classes.

Of him we recall the many extracurricular hours unselfishly devoted to guiding the Student Council, his tactful hand as the advisor to Honor Council, and his careful deliberation in the explanation of the difficult subject matter in his field.

Excellent teamwork and their spirit of giving, both in time and in talent, make us feel proud to have known this couple as teachers, friends, and advisors.

Therefore, with deep and sincere appreciation, we dedicate the 1951 Beaver Log to Dr. and Mrs. Paul Cutright.

COLLEGE! A word of unlimited connotations.

And the Class of '51 arrived at Beaver's portals, along with one of the rainiest Mondays in the history of September.

Freshmen, yet a mixed variety ... green or sophisticated, shy or cocky, filled with determination and expectancy.

A year passed quickly, the newness wore off and our classification changed ... sophomores ... now we could laugh at our first mistakes, we felt more secure, we made scores of new friends and poor Mom and Dad, they were lucky if they got letters from us once a week!

Juniors ... synonymous ... Prom, that night of nights, by far the most anticipated event on the social calendar, now forever in our memory. It was while we were Juniors that Beaver acquired the T.V. set, the Slater System and a Vice-President.

Caps and gowns, that mark of distinction which told the world we were seniors. Work and play, four years of it and our efforts were not in vain for we walked off with the coveted honors at Song Contest and now on June 10, we proudly receive the diplomas, emblem of another job well done.

'Bye Beaver ... and College, thank you, we learned to live and are now ready to make our living and a life that counts.

Active in class projects . . . leaders in campus organizations . . . outstanding personalities, are all characteristics reflected in the girls elected annually by their classmates for the traditional Beaver Mirror.

As the fall of 1950 began, it found the Juniors ready for a banner year and trying for top honors. Their unified efforts at Song Contest not only won them the cup for the best song but one for honorable mention too.

From there they took off on a fabulous "Trip to the Moon" during Prom Week End in February. The queen and her attendants graced the Castle with a royal atmosphere as starry-eyed couples watched the coronation.

Each member of the class did her share to make Prom a success and the gay whirl was hardly over when they found themselves in the midst of play contest. Again they succeeded and carried off the winning cup for the best play presented.

However, all admit that the crowning event of this outstanding year was the thrill of receiving the Beaver ring from our special senior friend at the impressive Ring Breakfast in May.

Now as the year draws to a close we look back on two very enjoyable years at Beaver and are looking forward to two more just as enjoyable. There was no keeping the Sophomores out of the many college activities and we managed to have representatives in all fields: drama, sports, and music. The big event of the year was the Soph Hop in April with “Up in Central Park” as the original theme. Our big sisters leave us in June as we take over the job with the new freshman class. We say goodbye for now but we shall be spending the summer planning the biggest Junior year ever.

We arrived in September, were given a friendly greeting, name tag, and greenie cap all in one breath. It was exciting, and we managed, after all, to live through Frosh Week and Fun Week, and orientate ourselves into the college routine. Quickly we learned what Song Contest, hold the bus, cut, and red flannel hash meant. Following the traditions started last year, the Juniors again chose twelve of us to attend the Prom Queen. Next came May Day, then our first year was over. We can't wait until September when we come back again . . . this time to familiarity.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Beaver students, realizing that the privilege of governing themselves democratically is a valuable one, take great pride in the Student Government Association of which every student is automatically a member. The purpose of this organization is to promote a spirit of unity among students, to represent and further the best interests of the student body, and to encourage responsibility and loyalty.

The government of the Association has been vested in the Student Council as an intermediary link between the students and the college administration. The chief concern of the Student Council is the presentation of students' problems and the formulation of campus policies agreeable to both the students and the faculty administration.

In the past four years, student government at Beaver has evolved from a unit concerned chiefly with judicial measures to a system with constructive positive policies for student welfare as its primary emphasis.
NOMINATING COUNCIL

The Vice-President of the Student Government Association, Natalie Gumport, is the President of Nominating Council. The purpose of this council is to direct all Beaver College student elections and to prepare the ballots with all names of students eligible for office.

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor System at Beaver College applies to both the academic and the social life. As governing body for the execution of the Honor System, it is the responsibility of the council to encourage the highest ideals of honor among the students. Janet Nief, president of the council, sponsored a speaker from the University of Virginia as a representative of the Honor System in that school.
DORMITORY COUNCIL

Dormitory Council is composed of the first and second House Presidents of each of the dormitories and was enlarged this year to include chairmen of the corridor representatives. This organization takes care of the dormitory government and is responsible for the general decorum of the students on campus. Joy North is president.

TRADITION

This organization is open to all students and especially to those who are interested in keeping alive the traditions of Beaver College which have come down through the years. This was the first year a chairman, Gayle MacCracken, was elected to direct the group. Tradition has sponsored several informal dances and intercollegiate bridge tournaments.
Y.W.C.A.

The Young Women's Christian Association is active in all the religious programs on campus and is responsible for one chapel service each week. The Y also plans the "Big-Little Sister" program, the senior tea for parents, several social welfare activities, and Religious Emphasis Week in the fall. This year's president is Dorothea Wirth.

DAY STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of this organization is to further the acquaintance of the day students and the resident students at Beaver College. The formal Day Student Dance, held in December, was planned by this council under the direction of Mary Ann Daniel, president.
HANDBOOK

The Student's Handbook, edited by Gayle MacCracken, contains information relating to the extra-curricular and social rules of the college. It is used by the students throughout the year as a reference book for the established social permissions. It also contains the constitutions of the various councils on campus.

NEWMAN CLUB

The Newman Club, an organization for the Catholic girls at Beaver, meets under the direction of Father Flynn and of Virginia Ahern, president. The girls meet to discuss any problems they may have concerning not only Catholicism but other religious faiths. Informal dances are sponsored as a part of the social program.

THE BEAVER LOG

The Beaver Log, which is the Beaver College yearbook, is published by the senior class under the supervision of the Student Government Association. The book constitutes a record of student activities and organizations on the Beaver campus during the past year. The faculty advisers for this publication are Dr. Doris Fenton and Mr. Benton Spruance.

THE BEAVER NEWS

The Beaver News, issued bi-weekly, is a publication by and for the students. Dr. Belle Matheson is the faculty adviser. Girls interested in newspaper work and all those in the journalism class make up the staff of the paper. Any activity pertaining to college life which would be of interest to the students receives a write-up.
THE BEAVER REVIEW

The Beaver Review, a literary magazine issued quarterly, is edited by a staff under the supervision of faculty adviser Dr. Margaret Hinton. Any student may submit for publication in this magazine her own creative literary attempts or original art compositions to illustrate someone else's poem, essay, or short story.

The purpose of this organization is to plan extra-curricular activities pertaining to the areas of music, fine arts, science, current history, literature and drama.

James Michener, author of the Tales of the South Pacific, was the first Forum presentation this year. He was followed by William and Margaret Diehl, who presented a musical recital. Mr. Diehl, a baritone, was accompanied by his wife, a polished pianist. Sue Fuller, artist, lectured in February. Isaac Jen spoke to the students and members of a faculty panel on the Far Eastern problem. Other distinguished guests appeared in the spring, including Boris Goldovsky, famous authority and commentator on the opera.
HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club sponsors projects of interest to the entire student body and more specifically of interest to those majoring in that field. The club made a United Nations flag and presented it to Dr. Kistler for the college. The club also made the draperies for the Beaver smoker under the chairmanship of Catherine Kilpatrick.

STUDENT COUNSELORS

All Student Counselors are either juniors or seniors. The chairman of the group this year was Marjorie Hicks, who was also the Freshman Class adviser. The main purpose of the group is guiding and counseling the new students, not only during Freshman Week, but throughout the college year.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The N.S.A. Campus Committee has as its aims to maintain academic freedom, improve student welfare, improve student government associations, promote international understanding, and the like. This year the group at Beaver has made plans to improve and extend the "leadership training program," has sponsored W.S.S.F., and has established the purchase card system to give students discounts on purchases and other expenses. Beaver's representative this year is Jane Ernstthal.

SOCIOLOGY CLUB

The Sociology Club, a comparatively new organization on campus with Joan Batting as president, has enjoyed speakers and discussions which were of particular interest to girls majoring in sociology. Meetings were also given over to social welfare work. The Jenkintown Community Chest arranged several field trips.
PI DELTA EPSILON

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national honor fraternity in journalism, helps to keep the members informed of the latest trends in collegiate journalism. Students who have done outstanding work on any of the Beaver publications are eligible for membership. Suzanne Cooney is president.

ALPHA KAPPA ALPHA

Alpha Kappa Alpha is the honorary fraternity in philosophy. Informal discussions of various philosophies are the object of this organization. Dr. Huang is the faculty adviser. Juniors and seniors who have taken the required courses in philosophy and have met the other specific requirements are selected for membership. Rhoda Paris, president for the first semester, was succeeded by Marilyn Zorn.
LAMBDA DELTA ALPHA

Lambda Delta Alpha is the senior honor society of Beaver College. Selection of members from the senior class is made by the Committee on Honors with the approval of the faculty and is announced on Honors Day. Its purpose is to stimulate and to encourage scholarship and to give recognition to the students who have shown that they possess academic accomplishments of merit, excellence of character, and outstanding qualities of leadership.

KAPPA DELTA PI

Kappa Delta Pi is the national honor society in education. Girls who have met the requirements in the field of education are eligible for membership. This group gives a tea for all prospective teachers at Beaver College. This organization also sponsors outstanding educators to speak in education classes on campus. The president of this society is Josephine Bruck.
Psi Chi

Psi Chi is the national honor society in psychology. Carolyn Buchanan is the president, and any student doing outstanding work in this major field is eligible for membership. Psychologists and other outstanding speakers in related fields are frequent discussion leaders at Psi Chi meetings.

Alpha Psi Omega

The Mu Mu chapter of the Alpha Psi Omega National Honorary Dramatics Fraternity was established on the campus this year for the first time. Miss Judith Elder is faculty adviser to the group. Members are selected on the basis of their participation in the dramatic events at Beaver College.
WHO'S WHO

Nine Beaver seniors are annually elected for recognition in “Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.” A committee composed of faculty, administration, and students selects the Beaver members. The selection is based on leadership, character, and scholarship.

PENTATHLON

Students are selected to PENTATHLON, the oldest honorary society at Beaver, for their sportsmanship, interest, and performance in athletics. The purpose of this society is to develop a greater interest in sports at Beaver. PENTATHLON was under the leadership of Caryl Ullmer this year.

MANAGERIAL BOARD

The Managerial Board consists of one adviser, the general manager, and all the managers of varsity and intramural sports. This organization handles the actual running of varsity and intramural sports which are sponsored by the Athletic Association.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

All students of Beaver College are members of this organization. The Executive Board, under the direction of Pat Stevenson, handles all matters of policy and directs all events which are sponsored by the A.A. The purpose of this group is to develop interest in all sports and to create a spirit of good sportsmanship.
VARSITY HOCKEY

The varsity hockey team had a very successful year. They played a ten-game schedule, winning seven, losing two, and tying one. The seniors on the team are Captain Suzanne Cooney, Diane Deane, Pat Stevenson, and Caryl Ulmer.

MRS. MARY W. CONKLIN, Coach
This year the basketball squad had a schedule of nine games, which started in February with the alumnae. The team had a fair season, since five of its forwards and one guard were returning varsity players. Many girls were interested in basketball this year and three teams were formed.
SOFTBALL

One of the outstanding college teams last year, the team tried again this spring to maintain its excellent record. Good coaching, team work, and hard practice are proved by the results.

LACROSSE

Growing in popularity, Lacrosse enters its fourth season at Beaver. Several veteran players and many outstanding newcomers were victorious as a result of excellent coaching.

The riflery team has been extremely successful this year. The team has lost only one match and that to Drexel early in the season. Expert shooting in the Nationals again brought honors to Beaver College.

SWIMMING

Diving competition, free-style swimming and medley races, all add up to one of the most exciting varsity sports at Beaver College. Even though the team has not always come out a victor, swimming was one of the most interesting sports to watch. Co-operation in the medley races showed excellent coaching.
Golf, the smallest varsity at Beaver, tries once again for the championship this season. Two veterans and several new players are on this year's team. Sue Cooney, former Philadelphia Junior Champ, is captain of the team.

MODERN DANCE

Exercises, tricky dance steps old and new, and dance composition to the beating tomtom—that is Beaver's leotard crew. The purpose of the club is to give girls experience in choreography and to develop skills and techniques in dance. The club performed one of its outstanding routines, "Dry Bones," on television.
ACTIVITIES
THEATRE PLAYSHOP

Supported by students majoring in speech and drama and others interested, this organization presents two major productions, and several smaller plays each year. The scenes on the following page are from the first production of the year, "The Young and Fair." Under the direction of Miss Elder and president Zelda Libenson, this dramatic group has enjoyed a very successful year. Several members of the group have appeared on television and radio broadcasts through the year. The various production committees, those on lighting, sets, properties, and costumes, are also a very important part of the organization.

MISS JUDITH ELDER, Faculty Adviser

Those girls who have a special interest in radio and drama belong to the Radio Workshop. Original programs are directed and produced over W.I.B.G. This group helps supply programs for community organizations. In its third year on campus, this activity has become a vital part of the drama program.

CHOIR

Singing at church services in the Philadelphia area and at the chapel services on campus keeps this group busy the entire year. The Christmas and Palm Sunday services are always a high spot in the yearly choir program. This small group of select singers is under the direction of Mrs. Haupt, a former Beaver student.
GLEE CLUB

Glee Club as the largest musical organization on campus offers an opportunity for all those interested in music. A joint concert with Lehigh University at Beaver, known as Beaver Night, was one of the striking performances of the year. Under its inspiring conductor, this club has participated in concerts in neighboring colleges and has sung in many large churches in this vicinity.

DR. W. LAWRENCE CURRY, Director

SONG CONTEST

The annual interclass battle of songs takes place each year on Tuesday evening before Thanksgiving. Each class presents four songs: a marching-in song, a class song, a pep song, and an alma mater. The words and music of all except the marching-in song are written by the students.

This year the seniors won the cup presented for the best all-round performance, and also the cup for the most original song. The juniors received the runners-up cup and another cup for having the best song.

Freshmen wore their greenie caps for the last time. After the traditional bonfire and ringing of the chapel bell, the winning seniors drank coke from the big cup, and everyone was served cider and doughnuts.
A. A. SHOW

Under the sponsorship of the Athletic Association of Beaver, the members of the swimming club took part in the first water ballet in Beaver's history. "The Tail of the Year" was the name of the gala affair. The theme of the pageant was "Months of the Calendar Year." Miss Mary Jane Everett is the faculty adviser to the group and the choreography for the aquacade was written by Phyllis Saxton, chairman of the show. This excellent entertainment we hope will set a precedent for future shows of this kind.
PLAY CONTEST

Caroline Warager, a sophomore, was chairman of this year’s annual Play Contest. For Play Contest each class choses a director. With the support of the class, a play is produced; it need not be an original script.

This year the seniors gave “Everyman,” a morality play. The juniors gave J. M. Barrie’s satiric comedy, “Rosalind” and were the lucky winners of the Contest. The sophomores presented J. M. Synge’s poetic drama, “Riders to the Sea.” The cup for the best acting went to Elise Melnick, a member of this class, for her performance as Cathleen. “The Slave with Two Faces” by M. C. Davies was given by the freshman class. All in all it was a good evening of entertainment with excellent class spirit and co-operation shown.

KEY AND CUE

"Noname," this year's Key and Cue production was presented in May. The original musical comedy was written by Gayle MacCracken and Greta Funk. Jane Topping directed the production and Betty Jane Tomlinson and Dorothy Hart handled the music. Much fun and hard work at rehearsals resulted in a most entertaining production. The present seniors were freshmen when the first musical comedy written by Beaver students was presented. It was a night when Beaver's hidden talent took the limelight and has been a highly anticipated event ever since.

May Queen

NANCY LINDHOLM ROBERTS
MAY DAY

This was the year for a “small” May Day but it was wonderful just the same. The traditional Junior-Senior Ring Breakfast started the festivities of the day, an entire day dedicated to the Queen of the May. Following the impressive procession of Honor Court and Laurel Chain, the beautiful queen, Nancy Lindholm Roberts, was crowned, surrounded by her four lovely attendants, Marilyn Doig, Dorothy Hart, Betsey MacLeod, and Caryl Ulmer. Singing, pageantry and finally the dance in honor of the queen, brought to a close a delightful May Day we shall always remember.

MAY DAY COMMITTEE IN APPRECIATION...

The staff of the 1951 Beaver Log wishes to express its sincere appreciation to all those whose advice and support have made possible the production of our yearbook:

Mr. Benton Spruance, our faculty adviser, whose helpful advice was always ready when needed.

Dr. Doris Fenton, our literary adviser, whose aid and assistance has been invaluable.

Mr. Nicholas Ickes of Colyer-Roux Printing Company, whose cooperation and service to us has exceeded the necessary bounds of a yearbook publisher.

Mr. Marvin Merin, Jr. of Merin Studios, who has made many worthwhile suggestions about the photography of our book and who has been most helpful in every way.

Our thanks also go to Mr. Thomas Barlow and Miss Frances Lewis of the Public Relations Office who guided our finances and provided us with pictures from office files, and to Mr. Donald Kauffman and students who assisted us with photography in the 1951 Beaver Log.
